My Dear People,

Today's theme on the Readings: GOD IS ON THE SIDE OF THE POOR

Two of today's readings make it quite clear that God is on the side of the poor. Amos describes in detail the exploitation of the poor and needy. The psalm repeats that God acts to benefit the poor and lowly. But Luke turns things upside down, telling a tale of a conflicted steward, about to be fired, who demonstrates his cleverness and is rewarded. Like the community to whom Paul writes in Timothy, these readings are personal, directed to believers, members of the Jewish and Christian communities, who struggle to deal with personal choices about how to conduct their lives. They offer an outline for how God wishes us to live in a world as complicated and as confusing as our own.

In Christ,
Father John

Volunteer Spotlight: Lisa VanDorpe

Lisa and her husband, Tom have been parishioners for 13 years. She currently serves as the chair of the campaign to construct our new church. Other ministries she has volunteered for are religious education and the parish rummage sale. One of her favorite things about St. Thomas More is the Taize Prayer Service. We thank Lisa for her passion and energy she gives to the campaign to build our new church!

Thank you for your generosity!
We received a bonus from the Diocese for increasing PSA donors by more than 20% compared to 2018!

Baptisms: Call the Church office to schedule an appointment; please allow five weeks advance notice. Baptisms are held on the third and fifth Sundays of each month (if applicable), immediately following the 11:15 AM Mass.

The Library Corner

Good Sunday to you. Today I want to give you an update on our Children's section. It has been growing and is now home to some new materials for those young folks of about 8 to 13 years of age. We have three of the Will Wilder series from Raymond Arroyo, a N.Y. Times bestselling author and EWTN personality. These are high adventure / mystery stories that are, according to Dean Koontz, "Great fun and great frights". Booklist says there are "shades of Indiana Jones…". Also, we have added a recent edition of the three book Tom Playfair series written by Fr. Francis J. Finn, S.J. These books, written in the 1890's, are full of humor and adventure and still captivate young readers.

1. Will Wilder: The Relic of Perilous Falls. Yearling, 318 pgs. 2. Will Wilder: The Lost Staff of Wonders. Yearling. 333 pgs. 3. Will Wilder: The Amulet of Power. Crown Books, 288 pgs.

1. Tom Playfair: Or Making a Start. Tan Books, 255 pgs. 2. Percy Wynn: Or Making a Boy of Him. Tan Books, 248 pgs. 3. Harry Dee: Or Working It Out. Tan Books, 371 pgs.

Please bring in your young readers to see these and other great offerings for children of all ages.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Although June is the month most associated with weddings in the United States, September has become more popular in recent years. Wedding celebrations always require some savvy planning, and people who have a talent for hospitality in the mix. At the wedding feast at Cana, the mother of Jesus was recruited to deal with some of the details of the banquet, and when a very understandable crisis arose, she did what she could to rescue the party. Anyone who has ever run out of ice, dessert, or table settings knows the stress!

Slowly, the memory of Jesus Christ's blessing of this marriage feast led the Church to form a way to bless marriages. A thousand years ago weddings migrated from the family home to the doors of the church, where the celebration was held in public view. From this practice came a prayer called the "Nuptial Blessing," one of the most solemn prayers in our tradition. It is very much like the prayers by which baptismal water and chrism are consecrated, the ordination prayer over a priest, and the Eucharistic Prayers over bread and wine. Four hundred fifty years ago, weddings moved inside the church building. All of this gives married couples good reason to celebrate their anniversaries well, especially with the clinking of glasses filled with good wine. —James Field, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

As we approach the November 2nd & 3rd Campaign Pledge Drive, we are thankful for the challenge to construct a permanent Catholic church in North Irvine. Parishes across the U.S. and around the world struggle to fill the pews for Mass, while we are very blessed to have eight full Masses every weekend! In addition, we are grateful for our multiple ministries providing faith enrichment and fellowship every day of the week! Our parish meeting rooms are booked day and night with classes and meetings that support the faithful. We are blessed to need more worship space and provide these abundant life-giving opportunities!
