My Dear People,

Today's theme on the Readings: SALVATION IN DAILY LIFE

This Sunday is the feast of the Holy Family, which comes on the first Sunday after Christmas Day. Today's feast celebrates how the humanity of Jesus (including his entire family life) has brought saving significance into the daily rhythms of our human family life. The scriptures offer instruction and encouragement on how to share—within our families, parish families, and the wider human family—the love that God shares with us in Jesus. Selections from Sirach, Psalm 128, and Colossians encourage us to reflect divine love and thus find holiness in all our human relationships. The reading from Matthew's Gospel offers a living example of love in the actions Joseph took to protect his young family from danger and to nurture them within the larger family of faith of their time.

In Christ,
Father John

Learning to Listen to the Word of the Lord

Each Sunday we respond: "Thanks be to God" at the end of the Readings at Mass. Are we really grateful? Have we actually understood what the reading was saying? Come and explore the Sunday Readings and learn about forming a real relationship with Jesus Christ through His Word. Each Wednesday at 7:30pm Fr. Joe Justice will lead a study on the Sunday Readings and help to teach a deeper way of prayer based on God's Word.

Classes meet every Wednesday at 7:30pm in SN Room

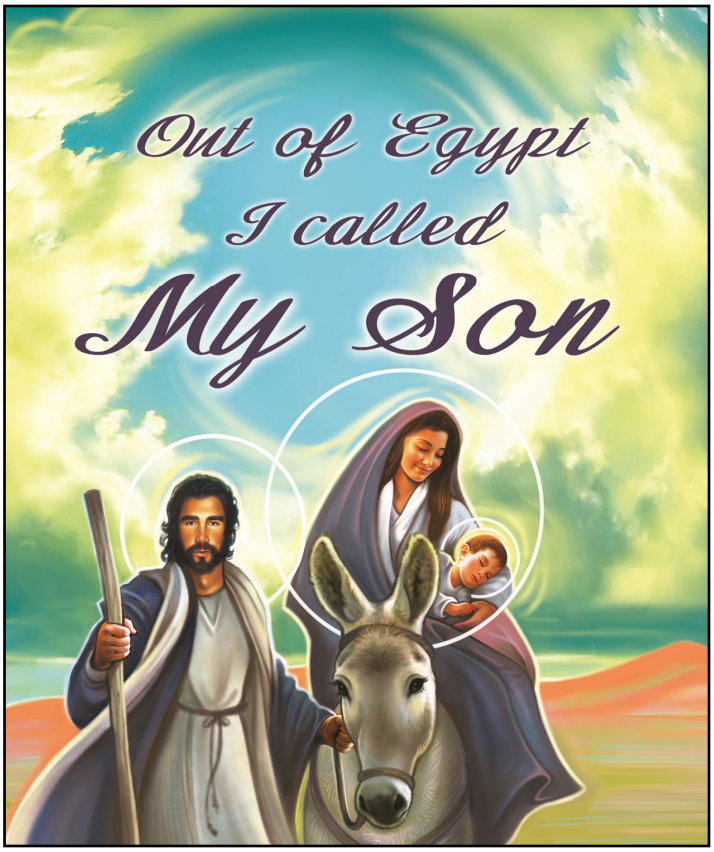
CONSECRATION

Once again, the Annual Total Consecration to Jesus through Mary, known as the St. Louis Marie de Montfort Consecration will be recited publicly here at St. Thomas More Parish during the New Year's Eve Mass on Tuesday, December 31st at 5:30pm. If you have already taken the consecration, but would like to renew it to gain the additional indulgences and strength, simply attend this Mass, where you will be given the text of the consecration to recite corporately with the group, at the appropriate section of the Mass. We hope many will avail themselves of this powerful spiritual opportunity. St. Pope John Paul II was a fervent advocate of this consecration, which he regarded as the reference point of his entire spiritual life.



This Winter's Eve

Thank you to Keith and Meredith Rattay for organizing the "This Winter's Eve" concert on December 12th with Sarah Hart and PJ Anderson. The concert was well attended and helped to stir up the spirit in the parish. The event created a festive environment for fellowship and celebration. Many parishioners stated they would love to see more events like this in the future. If you see Keith and Meredith around, please be sure to say thank you!
