Rest in the love of Christ
Lt. Col. Ed Smith

My Dear People,

Today's theme on the Readings: SEEKING THE LIGHT

In today's readings we find ourselves being drawn more deeply into relationship with Jesus. We are getting to know more about him as we see how he struggles with the news of his cousin John's arrest. His first response is to withdraw, to leave Nazareth and go to Capernaum. There he is perhaps both consoled and challenged by the words of Isaiah that Matthew quotes: "the people who sit in darkness have seen a great light, / on those dwelling in a land overshadowed by death / light has arisen" (Matthew 4:16). Jesus contemplates his cousin's death, perhaps his own death, and he seeks the light. Maybe it is these words of Isaiah that move Jesus out of his withdrawal and into action. He begins to preach, teach, cure disease and illness, and proclaim the gospel of the kingdom.

The Library Corner

This week, on Tuesday January 28, 2020, we will observe the Feast Day of St Thomas Aquinas (1225-1274). He was an Italian Dominican friar, philosopher, Catholic priest and Doctor of the Church. He is also the Patron Saint of students and Catholic Universities. If you are interested in learning more about the Catholic Church's greatest theologian and philosopher, we have a great book that is perfect for your interest. Title: Aquinas 101: A Basic Introduction to the thought of St Thomas Aquinas. In this clear, thoughtful and immensely readable book, the author, Francis Selman, offers summaries on some of the most complex topics in the writings of St Thomas Aquinas. Come on by the Church Library and check it out. You'll be glad you did. We also have many other Saints books to choose from. Please, do not be a stranger to your Church Library.

We will be on the Church Patio next Sunday with many other great books for your enjoyment.

Learning to Listen to the Word of the Lord

Each Sunday we respond: "Thanks be to God" at the end of the Readings at Mass. Are we really grateful? Have we actually understood what the reading was saying? Come and explore the Sunday Readings and learn about forming a real relationship with Jesus Christ through His Word. Each Wednesday at 7:30pm Fr. Joe Justice will lead a study on the Sunday Readings and help to teach a deeper way of prayer based on God's Word.

Class will not meet this week, but will resume soon.

As Jesus was walking by the Sea of Galilee, he saw two brothers, Simon who was called Peter, and Andrew his brother, casting a net into the sea; for they were fishermen. And he said to them, "Follow me, and I will make you fishers of men." Mt 4:18-19

SAINT ANGELA MERICI (c. 1474-1540)
January 27

Born in Northern Italy, orphaned in childhood, Angela Merici faced a society in which education was largely the privilege of wealthy young men and based primarily in monastic schools. This reality shaped Angela's insightful conviction that society's disorder was caused by disorder in the home, and a lack of model Christian mothers the result of neglecting the education of young women. Transform the Christian family by placing an educated wife and mother at its heart, Angela believed, and the whole world would be renewed in Christ! So she gathered a small group of unmarried women, many of them Franciscan Tertiaries (lay affiliates) like herself, and set out to educate poor girls, free of charge, in their homes. She and her band of teachers called themselves companions, pioneering a new form of non-cloistered religious life for women, bearing witness to evangelical simplicity in the midst of the world, not as a formal "order" but as the Company (compagnia) of Saint Ursula. Known today as the Ursulines, Angela Merici's spiritual daughters continue serving the Church and society in a rich diversity of ministries. —Peter Scagnelli, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

refuses to ADVERTISE
believing it doesn't pay.
Later if business is poor
he ADVERTISES it for sale.
WHY IS IT?
