My Dear People,

Today's theme on the Readings: GOD'S SUMMONS

Confronted with God's power and majesty, the first response of the prophet Isaiah was to acknowledge his sinfulness. "Woe is me, I am doomed! For I am a man of unclean lips," he said aloud. Likewise, with his empty fishing nets dramatically filled at Jesus' instruction, Peter fell to his knees and cried out, "Depart from me, Lord, for I am a sinful man."

Next, Peter got up. He docked his boats then left to follow Jesus. Isaiah also had a dramatic change of heart. When he heard the Lord say, "Whom shall I send? Who will go for us?" Isaiah answered, "Here I am, send me."

We are summoned daily by the Risen Lord. We are reminded of the saving power of the gospel and know in our heart of hearts that, as St. Paul wrote, believing in anything else won't lead to anything.

What will it take for you to move past your sinfulness? What will it take for you to get off your knees? What will it take for you to bring to dock what is unimportant and to accept your call to be God's messenger?

A Valentine for God

Gracious God,
My love for you grows daily.
Whenever I witness an act of kindness or receive an unexpected gift, I am reminded of your expansive heart.
Even during times of duress, of sadness, or of heartache, I take comfort in knowing that nothing can separate me from your love.
Let this love in me blossom and flower so that I reflect your compassion and mercy in all that I say and do.
In gratitude and grace, I pray.
Amen.

R.E.P. CORNER

The REP Office would like to wish all of our teachers, students and families a real "sweetheart" of a Valentine's Day!

A big THANK YOU to all of the 5th grade REP students, their parents and teachers who joined us for the Valentine's Day "Love Your Neighbor" Service Project benefiting Orange County Catholic Worker. The group was able to decorate & fill over 160 bags of personal needs items in about 25 minutes! So many of our homeless brothers & sisters in Orange County will be blessed by your kindness and hard work.

The Library Corner

Good Sunday to you all. As Catholic Christians, called to respect and protect all human life from conception to natural death, we must be always ready and able to defend the most vulnerable among us, those not yet born. To that end it is our intention that the library maintain an up-to-date, inspirational, and educational inventory of pro-life resources. The collection includes both print and audio/visual materials. I have listed below three of the books presently available. Additional books and other available media will be identified here in the future.

Unplanned, by Abby Johnson, with Cindy Lambert. The story of how the director of a Planned Parenthood Clinic became a leader in the national pro-life movement. "...compellingly candid...Not argument or ideology but data...." Peter Kreeft.

Heaven's Song: Sexual Love as it was Meant to Be, by Christopher West. Based on the hidden talks of St. Pope John Paul II's Theology of the Body.

Life Giving Love: Embracing God's Beautiful Design for Marriage, by Kimberly Hahn. "Kimberly Hahn has crafted a masterpiece which, if acted upon, will change the world." Jeff Cavins.

FLU SEASON ETIQUETTE

With the arrival of the cold and flu season, we thought we would provide some helpful guidelines for your participation in the Liturgy. If you are sick, please stay home. Please remember that it is not a sin to miss Mass because you are sick. If you are attending Mass, please be understanding if your neighbor is choosing not to shake hands. A simple gesture like a smile or bow of the head would be appropriate to demonstrate the mutual charity celebrated at that time during Mass. During this season, please strongly consider receiving the Eucharist in the hand only. Receiving the Eucharist under both species is up to the individual. It is important to remember, however, that Christ is truly and completely present under each of the sacramental signs of either bread or wine. Therefore, if you are ill, please consider refraining from the cup during this flu season.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

The Reign of God comes about because people commit to reversing their lives completely, to embracing new vision, new values. Many popular television shows exploit an unattractive side of human nature by pitting contestants against one another, even to the point of performing dangerous stunts or devious schemes, to gain money or favor.

At the liturgy, we counter that impulse by committing ourselves to live generously. In response to Christ's total gift, we offer bread and wine as the emblems of our lives, our hopes, our joys and sorrows. The bread and wine carried to the altar contain our lives, and by offering our lives to God, we prepare to receive the gift of God's own life. We are to become what we receive: the body of Christ.

On Sundays, this self-giving is often accompanied by a collection and procession of gifts for the poor and money for the upkeep of the parish. There are certainly other methods of collecting money, some perhaps more efficient. Yet the act of giving from our abundance, and attending to the needs of the poor, opens us up to participation in the changes the Reign of God requires. —James Field, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.
