Love your enemies

My Dear People,

Today's theme on the Readings: DO NO HARM

We listen quite a while before we get to the "punch line" of the first reading today: even though it would be an easy thing to do, David will not harm the anointed one of the Lord. We, of course, know that Jesus is the Messiah, the anointed one of God, but the Bible uses this term for many different people. It is scripture's way of indicating who has been chosen by God for a special place and mission in salvation history.

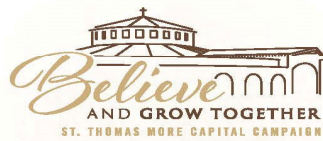

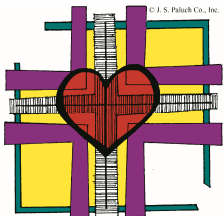

In today's Gospel, Jesus presents a greatly enlarged list of those who, as children of God, we should not harm, but love instead: our enemies, those who curse us or do us harm, those who owe us money, the ungrateful, the wicked. The point of Jesus' teaching is not to encourage these kinds of behaviors in others, but rather to form us in the image of our heavenly Father by increasing our opportunities to love unconditionally, expecting no return; to be merciful and forgiving, even when it would be easier not to.

*Heavenly Father,
Thank you for watching over the people of Saint Thomas More Parish and helping us to Believe and Grow Together. May everyone who visits our church feel welcome and may the beautiful surroundings and joy from our parish fill the hearts and spirits of all. As we build our new church in your honor, we ask you Lord to open our eyes to your countless gifts and, with a spirit of gratitude, help our community to make a joyful return to you.
St. Thomas More pray for us.
Amen.*

The Library Corner

Good Sunday to you all. Today I want to remind you of a section of the library that is home to some of the most useful and valuable books in our collection. Reference. Here we place books and other media that will help you to find answers to specific questions and/or broaden your knowledge of the Catholic Church. There are materials on Catholic practices, Cannon Law, Catechisms, and much more. All Reference materials are available for borrowing. Below I have listed three of the many items Reference has to offer. "Inquiring minds want to know"!

Ask the Bible Geek: Answers to Questions from Catholic Teens, by Mark Hart. Mark is the Executive V.P. of Life Teen International.

Vatican Council II, Volume 1: The Conciliar and Post Conciliar Documents, New Revised Edition. General Editor, Austin Flannery, O.P. A good Index and Table of Contents facilitate your specific search.

The Catholic Source Book, Third Edition: A Comprehensive Collection of Information about the Catholic Church. Rev. Peter Klein. This volume also has a good Table of Contents and Index.

FLU SEASON ETIQUETTE

With the arrival of the cold and flu season, we thought we would provide some helpful guidelines for your participation in the Liturgy. If you are sick, please stay home. Please remember that it is not a sin to miss Mass because you are sick. If you are attending Mass, please be understanding if your neighbor is choosing not to shake hands. A simple gesture like a smile or bow of the head would be appropriate to demonstrate the mutual charity celebrated at that time during Mass. During this season, please strongly consider receiving the Eucharist in the hand only. Receiving the Eucharist under both species is up to the individual. It is important to remember, however, that Christ is truly and completely present under each of the sacramental signs of either bread or wine. Therefore, if you are ill, please consider refraining from the cup during this flu season.

Campaign Re-Launch!

*Believe and Grow Together!
A sacred and inspiring permanent church is coming!*

*Visit the campaign booth March 23rd and 24th for details.
The capital campaign has been re-launched and a path toward an awesome church is charted.*

Thank you to all who have contributed toward the campaign. We have raised the most money ever in our parish history, but there is more to be done. It will be a great legacy when we can beautifully accommodate weddings, baptisms, and funerals. Only by working together will we further the mission of Jesus Christ on Earth.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

When the Roman Empire turned a favorable eye toward the once-persecuted Christians, among the effects was a population explosion in the baptismal font, as Christian sympathizers stepped from the shadows. With more and more people becoming Christians, laws were passed to protect Sunday as a work-free day. Soon, it became possible to celebrate Mass later in the morning, rather than the older custom of gathering before dawn to celebrate Eucharist. Amazingly, despite the increasing numbers of Christians, there was great resistance to adding to the number of worship events; the Eucharist that began as a few friends around a table soon was transformed into a more formal event with throngs crowding a large hall. All the Christians in a city or town would gather around the bishop for the one Sunday Eucharist, and only when the crowds became unmanageable was there an impulse to divide the assembly by splitting off a new bishop and flock.

Now, sixteen hundred years later, many parishes see a need to trim or combine Mass schedules. This is often seen as tough surgery. Yet our forebears in the faith would see it as a gain: a filling up of the Eucharist with a large and vigorous assembly, a fullness of ministry, an opportunity to make the Church more fully visible and stronger for service.
