My Dear People,

Today's theme on the Readings: ALL ARE SENT

Fifty days after Easter Sunday we celebrate the fulfillment of all God's promises in the feast of Pentecost, a feast that has sometimes been called the birthday of the church. One last time we are reminded that we Christians have received the Holy Spirit, not for our own benefit, but to enable us to follow our Christian vocation.

The centerpiece of the scriptures for Pentecost is the account in Acts of the Apostles of the sending of the Holy Spirit to the disciples. The other readings for this Sunday help us to understand what it means to live out our Christian vocation. Paul's letter shows us the gifts and fruits that the Holy Spirit gives to us. John's Gospel reminds us that Jesus has sent all his disciples to share his forgiveness and peace, through the power of the Holy Spirit.

In Christ,
Father John

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

The disciples gathered on the fiftieth day after the Resurrection were not keeping their first Pentecost. For them, Pentecost was the fiftieth day after Passover, a feast of the first fruits of the harvest. It was the second most important feast of the year. Today, Jews gather on the eve of the feast to study scripture and the law, and after the feast begins at sundown, spend the day in joyful social gatherings. The meaning of the celebration is the giving of the law on Mount Sinai, so for Christians the connection to the gifts of the Holy Spirit is obvious. In Sicily and in the Pantheon in Rome, today the descent of the Holy Spirit is enacted with a stunning ritual. Some churches there have an “eye” in the roof open to the sky, called an oculus. After the Gospel today, thousands of rose petals fall from the oculus onto the assembly. Churches and homes are decked in greenery and flowers to express the new life the Holy Spirit brings on this, the “birthday of the church.”

The Library Corner

Good Sunday morning to you! Today we speak of "Inspiration". These books we hope will excite you about your faith, your love for the Lord, and your beautiful Catholic heritage. There are accounts which witness to us from the lives of those who have lived out their commitment to God and His people in exceptional and selfless ways. There are personal reflections, and works that speak of God and faith with great power. I want to share with you two of these books and then, because we are still in the month of May, I want to include one about Mary.

The Joy of the Gospel, Pope Francis. Our Holy Father urges us to serve God and all of His creation and to live a life motivated by Divine love.

The Miracle of Father Kapaun, Roy Wenzl and Travis Heying. The story of a priest, a Medal of Honor recipient, and a man who lived to serve God and others.

The Catholic Companion to Mary, Mary Kathleen Glavich, S.N.D. This book seeks to bring into sharper focus the Mother of God. Who is she? What does the Church teach? Can a personal relationship with Mary bring us closer to God?

To find inspiration on your faith journey, visit your library.

New Feast Day:

Blessed Virgin Mary, Mother of the Church

Pope Francis has decreed that the ancient devotion to the Blessed Virgin Mary, under the title of Mary, Mother of the Church, be inserted into the Roman Calendar. In a decree released by the Congregation for Divine Worship and the Discipline of the Sacraments, Cardinal Robert Sarah, its Prefect, said the Holy Father wishes to promote this devotion in order to “encourage the growth of the maternal sense of the Church in the pastors, religious and faithful, as well as a growth of genuine Marian piety”. Scripture, the decree says, depicts Mary at the foot of the Cross (cf. Jn 19:25). There she became the Mother of the Church when she “accepted her Son’s testament of love and welcomed all people in the person of the beloved disciple as sons and daughters to be reborn unto life eternal.”

The liturgical celebration, B. Mariae Virginis, Ecclesiae Matris, will be celebrated annually as a Memorial on the day after Pentecost.

The St. Thomas More Parish will celebrate on Monday, May 21st at the 8:00 am Mass.
