The harvest is abundant but the laborers are few;
so ask the master of the harvest to send out laborers for the harvest.

My Dear People,

Today's theme on the Readings: GOD'S PROVIDENCE

Today's readings celebrate God's providence. No matter how wonderful (or heartbreaking) our relationships are, God always provides for us. No one cares for us the way God does.

Isaiah delights us with a deeply intimate image of God caring for us "as a mother comforts her child." The prophet describes us not as the usual "children of God," but as "babies." We should not resist this image, but rejoice in it. Trusting in God's care, we can all let down our guard and rest like infants in the lap of our mother.

Saint Paul's trust in God allows him to be at peace like this. He boldly declares that no one can "make troubles" for him, because he has given himself completely to Jesus. And when Jesus sends his disciples out to preach and heal, he challenges them not to provide for themselves, but to let faith be their guide.

The Library Corner

Good Sunday to you all! The library will be back on regular schedule beginning this Wednesday. We trust that you are making room for some purposeful and entertaining reading even during this time of the call to the great outdoors. Books are, after all, very portable, do not require a battery or other power source, and are easily read even in the brightest sunlight. What a concept!
To keep you motivated I am including a few more titles of works that I think may prove to be informative, interesting, and even entertaining. These are all available in your library.

The Screwtape Letters, by C.S. Lewis. (A personal favorite) Read this and find out how Satan really works.
Your One-Stop Guide to How Saints Are Made, by Bill
Dodds. "Witty and information rich", according to Rev.
Alfred McBride, O. Praem.

Why Pro-Life?, by Randy Alcorn. An important read.
Angels and Wonders: True Stories of Heaven on Earth, by Joan Wester Anderson.

Please come in and check us out!

STM welcomes
Fr. Kiet Ta
He will be joining us July 1st
as our new Parochial Vicar

I am Rev. Kiet Ta, a priest of the Diocese of Orange. I was born in Vietnam and I moved to the United States of America in 1995, four days before I turned 21. I received my AA degree at Golden West College in 1999 and a bachelor's degree in Business at Cal State Fullerton in 2002. During 2002, I also found my vocation in priesthood and applied to the Diocese of Orange. I was accepted and entered St. John's Seminary in the spring of 2003. I spent 2006-2007 at St. Boniface Church in Anaheim, and did my pastoral internship at St. Pius V in Buena Park during 2008-2009. I was ordained on June 12, 2010 and assigned to St. Norbert Church in Orange. After completing my first four-year assignment in this parish successfully, I was called to be the Chaplain at Mater Dei High School in 2014. I remained in this position for the last five years before I was assigned to be a parochial vicar at your wonderful parish, St. Thomas More in Irvine.

I would like to thank Father John Janze, the parish staff, and all who have shown me so much hospitality and helped me to immerse myself into the active life of this parish. I look forward to meeting all of you, walking with you in the journey of faith, and joining you in the true mission of making our community better, stronger, and nicer. Please help me to keep my priestly vow and fulfill all of my responsibilities in this wonderful parish completely, faithfully, and successfully. Please also remember to pray for me as I often do for you so that we can always "act justly, love tenderly and walk humbly with God" (Micah 6:8).

Thank you and God bless!

In Christ,
Fr. Kiet

A Biblical Walk Through the Mass

Do you understand the meaning behind the parts of the Mass?

In his video-based study, A Biblical Walk Through the Mass, Dr. Edward Sri explores the roots of the traditions we celebrate at Mass, and explains their profound significance.

You will come to know and understand the Mass as never before, leading you to a richer worship experience.

Margaret Cunningham will lead the study beginning Monday July 15th at 7:00 pm and continuing for five weeks. For more information or to register for the study, contact Janice@stmirvine.org or 949-551-8601.

Divine Mercy: A Musical Presentation and Inspiration

Thursday July 11th at 7 pm in MP Room

Enjoy a special concert and inspiring talk with Album of Year Award Winner and Female Vocalist Nominee, Annette Hills. She will share her talent, unique experience and reflections related to the Chaplet and Novena. Fred Ninonuevo will play multiple instruments as we learn about the special graces and promises associated with this magnificent outpouring of God's mercy.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

It's high summer now, school is out, the pace of work slows, and some people drift away. There are visitors in the churches every summer, and familiar faces are "among the missing." Some find the summer's call more appealing than the summons of the church bells. Many, however, would not dream of missing a Sunday, and so they make their way to Mass in unfamiliar places, watching the locals for clues as to when to sit or stand, where the Communion stations are. In answering the call, they keep the "sabbatical" rhythm of the Christian life: every seventh day, the Body of Christ assembles for worship.

For centuries, there was no obligation to Sunday Mass in the sense of a written law, but Christians have always yearned to be together on Sunday. In the city of Abitina, during a persecution by the Emperor Diocletian, a group of Christians were urged to stop worshiping together on Sundays. They responded, "Then take our lives, for without the Sunday we cannot live." By a curious coincidence, the appointed readings today center us on thoughts of peace. On our Independence Day, the experience of worship situated us in community, and evoked a commitment from us to be advocates of peace in all aspects of our society's life. —James Field, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.
