My Dear People,

Today's theme on the Readings: GOD WANTS TO BE KNOWN

The Old Testament reading from Deuteronomy praises God for inscribing the commandments in our very bodies. God's law is not distant or foreign, but a natural part of us. In his letter to the Colossians, Saint Paul echoes Moses, praising God for becoming one of us. The truly human, flesh-and-blood Jesus reminds us that God always wants to be recognizable and familiar to us. Jesus, who is also truly God, wants to be on intimate terms with each of us.

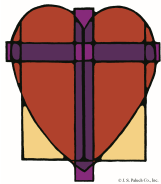

God's passionate desire to be known by us is almost too wonderful to take in. Luke's Gospel helps us understand how to respond. The Good Samaritan parable provides practical advice for those who believe in God's intimate love for them and want to share that love with others.

Welcome Fr. Kiet Ta!

Last weekend STM welcomed Fr. Kiet Ta as our new Parochial Vicar. We are excited to welcome him into our St. Thomas More family!

Fr. Kiet was ordained on June 12, 2010 and most recently served as the Chaplain at Mater Dei High School for the past five years. When you see him around, please introduce yourself and keep him in prayer.

The Library Corner

Good Sunday to you all. It is good to be back on duty. You may have noticed that we did not have our monthly Library Table on the patio last week. Not to fear! We do plan to be out there in August with an "A Book of Your Own" weekend. These are the high quality but surplus books that we offer to you a few times a year that you may take home and keep. Donations are always appreciated but never required.

For some of you, Summer holds a little extra time for entertaining, informative, and faith-based reading. I do have two new recommendations, but many more titles are available. Check out the offerings below and then stop by. We look forward to serving you.

Hiking The Camino, by Fr. Dave Pivonka, T.O.R. You may not have time to walk the 500 miles of the Camino de Santiago, but you will enjoy reading about the blessings of the journey experienced by this young and grateful Franciscan priest. (135 pages)

How I Stayed Catholic At Harvard, by Aurora Griffin. Off to college this Fall, or know someone who is? This book may just be the perfect read in preparation for life as a faithful Catholic Christian at today's university. (181 pages).

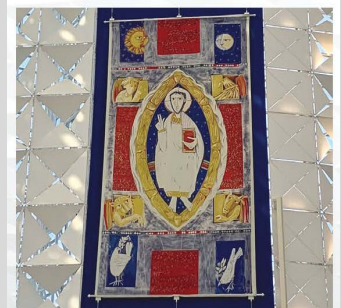

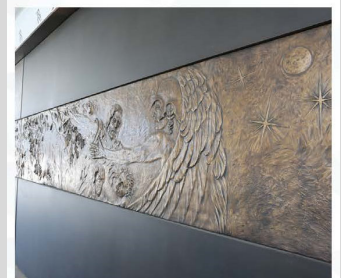

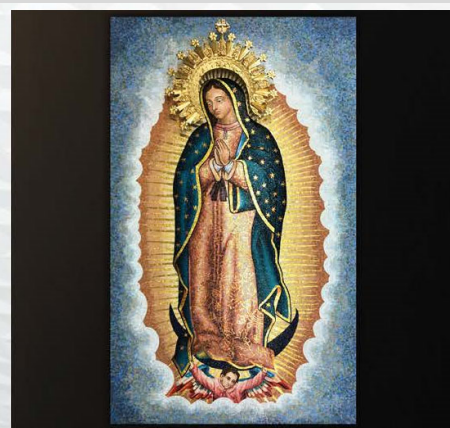

Dedication of Christ Cathedral!!! Watch live at STM!!! Wednesday, July 17th - 10:00 am.

To celebrate the grand opening of Christ Cathedral, all are invited to watch the dedication ceremonies via live streaming in the parish hall. They will begin at 10:30 am. You can also see the historical events at <https://dedication.rcbo.org>.

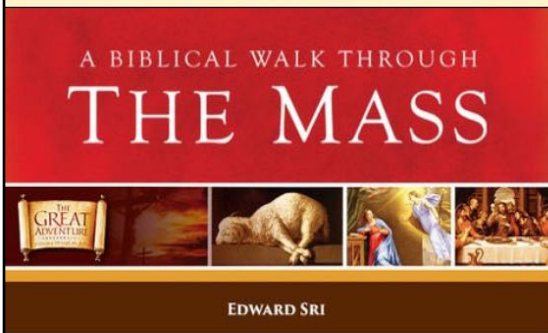

There has been much anticipation, prayer, and sacrifice for the transformation into Christ Cathedral since its initial purchase by the Diocese in 2011. The process included multiple design concepts, seismic retrofitting, installation of air conditioning, significant Hazel Wright organ renovation in Europe, and specially designed quatrefoils for climate control. Parishioners throughout the Diocese supported this renovation through sacrificial giving in the “For Christ Forever” fundraising campaign.

Bishop Kevin Vann declares, “Christ Cathedral reflects the faith and devotion of all the people of our Diocese and serves as a beacon of hope for those who visit in pilgrimage here.”

Following the dedication events, the Cathedral will be open only for Saturday Vigil and Sunday Masses. Regular scheduled daily tours will not resume until February, 2020, when the Hazel Wright Organ installation is complete.

A Biblical Walk Through the Mass this Monday, July 15th at 7:00pm

Do you understand the meaning behind the parts of the Mass?

In his video-based study, A Biblical Walk Through the Mass, Dr. Edward Sri explores the roots of the traditions we celebrate at Mass, and explains their profound significance.

You will come to know and understand the Mass as never before, leading you to a richer worship experience.

Margaret Cunningham will lead the study beginning Monday, July 15th at 7:00 pm and continuing for five weeks. For more information or to register for the study, contact Janice@stmirvine.org or 949-551-8601.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

On a summer day, with the windows open, we may hear the sound of church bells. Bells seem to have come into church life in Irish monasteries around the seventh century, and spread around the Christian world by Irish monks on missionary journeys. By the eighth century, bells were standard equipment in even small parish churches. An ancient ceremony, once called the "baptism of the bells," recognizes that the church bell has a voice to call people to awareness and summon them to worship, and even bestows a name on the bell.

In a world without clocks or watches, the bell had an indispensable role. For calling monks in from the fields for prayer, or alerting far-flung visitors, the bell's voice was enhanced by hoisting it high into a tower. Soon it was learned that the sound of several bells clanging together in harmony imparted a sense of joy to great celebrations, and bell towers prospered, some chock full of bells. Different combinations of rings could indicate a death, a Mass, a wedding, a fast day, the curfew at the end of day, and the Angelus. Before electricity, bell-ringing was hard work indeed: the biggest bell in the Catholic world, in Cologne, Germany, weighs twenty-seven tons! There's no substitute for the resonant roar of a mighty bell; electric chimes are not eligible for blessing!

Flashback with our parish history in photos!
We have come a long way together!

We remember our humble parish beginnings with flashback photos this month. Come see the fun and funny pics of how St. Thomas More Parish got started and to appreciate how far we have come together. If you have any personal photos, bring them to the booth to share.

We are excited to welcome Fr. Kiet Ta, our new Parochial Vicar!

All summer, visit the campaign booth to make a Flat St. Thomas More figure to take with you on your travels. Send us your photos with him by either posting them on Instagram at #stmirvine or by emailing them to lisabvandorpe@gmail.com. Flat St. Thomas More is a perfect travel companion since our patron saint was a true family man. Please pray for our parish family while you are away.

Campaign Sundays are meant to remind us of the daily importance of parish life. Many spiritual, formative and fun family events happen here, such as: daily Mass followed by the rosary, Sacramental preparation, Religious Education for all ages, Family Fun Fair, Christ Renews His Parish weekends, Bible studies, pancake breakfasts, Taize prayer and more. Blessings abound when we invite Jesus to participate in our lives! Thank you to all the 54 ministries that provide these meaningful events for us all year long!

Later in the summer, we will take a group photo on the lawn after every Mass. Gather on the lawn, the future site of our permanent church, and be recorded as a STM parishioner! As a parish family, let our gathering remind us to love God by loving each other. Consider volunteering to help grow the campaign ministry.

Join us in glorifying Jesus Christ by building a church in His honor!
