My Dear People,

Today's theme on the Readings: REST IN THE LORD

For several weeks we have listened to readings that have recounted just how arduous the work of prophets and disciples can be. In today's Gospel, the Lord Jesus listens to the reports of those he had sent out "two by two" to minister to the people. After the apostles reported what they had done, Jesus, recognizing their fatigue, says, "Come away by yourselves to a deserted place and rest awhile" (Mark 6:31). Perhaps this is what the Lord is telling his disciples in the year 2018 as well. We need to pause on our journey of discipleship and simply rest in the Lord. Sunday Mass provides many opportunities for quiet times, particularly during the periods of silence following the readings. Why not take the time today to allow the saving word of the Lord to penetrate your heart during those silent times? Ask the Lord to renew you in body, mind, and spirit for the arduous work of discipleship.

SOLITUDE
Settle yourself in solitude,

—St. Teresa

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

The American Revolution cleared the way for freedom of religion in the former colonies, since the colonies had always been a more religiously tolerant place than the old country. Even so, colonial laws restricted the practice of the Catholic faith, and just as in England, Americans who desired to be priests or nuns had to go to the Netherlands or France. As political storm clouds gathered in France, an American woman, Mother Bernardina Matthews, the prioress of the Hoogstraeten Carmel in Holland, made a brave move. With two other American nuns, her nieces, and a Dutch sister, she came to Port Tobacco, Maryland, in 1790. Within twenty years the community had grown to twenty, although by 1823 their farm failed and they had to move to Baltimore and open a school. The Carmelite order requires contemplation and cloister, so in time the school was closed. The Port Tobacco land had long since been sold, but in 1976 a community of nuns was able to return thanks to loyal neighbors who had worked for forty years for their restoration. Today, our original American convent is fully alive in prayer, hard work, and strong community.

AUGUST

24 Friday 25 Saturday

In today's first reading, we hear through the prophet Jeremiah that God understands the need of the people for shepherds who will lead them to a place of spiritual depth and peace. In the Letter to the Ephesians, we hear that this desire that the people find peace in right relationship with God is for everyone. Jesus, the Good Shepherd, leads the disciples to a deserted place to rest. They had just returned from their first time of mission, and Jesus understands that they need time away with him, to share their experiences and questions, and to find refreshment of body and spirit. Yet Jesus also recognizes the needs of the crowds who follow them to that deserted place. He knows that he is the peace for which they long.

SABBATH REST

Sabbath. We hear the word, and many think of the obligation to attend Sunday Mass. Today, we hear Jesus say to the disciples, 'Come away to a deserted place and rest a while.' This is the true spirit of sabbath--to take time away, to worship God, participate in Eucharist, to be refreshed in body, mind, and spirit. Thought of in this way, sabbath is not an obligation but a privilege, a gift rather than a burden. Making sabbath begins with a commitment to put God first. That is what the shepherds that Jeremiah called for were to do, to lead the people to be people of and for God. This is what Jesus, the Good Shepherd, leads us to do, and he shows us how to do this. Not only does Jesus take time away for prayer and to "rest a while," he also spends time with the people who need him. In sabbath, we spend time with God, family, our faith community, and friends. And this spending time "with" helps us to re-orient our lives toward what is most important.

FROM SABBATH TO THE REST OF THE WEEK

Taking sabbath to heart has a significant impact on the way in which we live our lives, practically and spiritually. The practical part is evident on the surface. Setting aside time for Sunday Mass, quiet, and time with others requires planning and commitment. There is a practical dimension to the physical and emotional benefits of such time away from the stress and busyness of our daily lives as well. The spiritual impact of sabbath may take a little while to begin to perceive. When we put God first in our lives, everything else falls into place in a different, holier way. We begin to see God's grace in the daily circumstances of our lives, and to grow in understanding of what we are to do and how we are called to act. We know who we are in God's sight, and whose we are, as children of God. Copyright (c) J. S. Paluch Co., Inc.

Join us for the 4th Annual Camino de Santiago

El Camino de Santiago or 'The Way of St. James' is the oldest pilgrimage route in all of Europe. All Camino routes ultimately lead to Santiago de Compostela in Spain, the final resting place of apostle, James (St. James, the Greater). This 1,200 year-old tradition lives on to this day with over 250,000 travelers making the pilgrimage to the Cathedral of Santiago de Compostela in Spain, which is directly on top of the tomb holding the relics of St. James.

In the diocese of Orange, our very own Santiago de Compostela Catholic Church in Lake Forest is believed to be the only church in the world that shares the same name as Santiago de Compostela in Spain. Beginning in 2015, the Camino de Santiago experience was recreated through a one-day pilgrimage event, including a Camino walk, on the weekend before or after July 25th - the Feast Day of Santiago de Compostela (i.e., the date of the discovery of the tomb and relics of St. James).

Pilgrims will walk one of two Camino routes: 4.3 miles or 7.0 miles, depending on their personal preference. For those unable to walk the aforementioned routes, SDC hosts a short 'on-campus' walk with activities mirroring those of the longer Camino.

A "Pilgrim Mass" similar to the mass pilgrims, upon reaching the Santiago de Compostela Cathedral attend in Spain, will be celebrated at 11:30am. The day will culminate with a worthy luncheon feast for all the hungry but spirit-filled pilgrims.

¡Buen Camino!
