Welcoming all, we, the Spirit-filled parish of St. Thomas More, value our Roman Catholic faith by celebrating the sacraments, breaking open the Scriptures, and joyfully offering ourselves in service to others.

Under the inspiration of our patron saint, we seek to build a caring community that embraces the values he modeled of friendship, integrity and courageous love of God.

My Dear People,

Today's theme on the Readings: WEEKLY MIRACLE

This week marks the beginning of a kind of "liturgical detour." We have been listening to Saint Mark's Gospel during this liturgical year (Year B). Today we begin to hear a long section from John's Gospel, starting with the miracle of the multiplication of the loaves and fishes. This miracle story is a prelude to the Lord's statements that we will begin hearing in a few weeks, in which Jesus refers to himself as the "bread of life." Each week we witness a miracle at Mass. We do not see a multiplication of loaves before us. What our eyes of faith allow us to see is the miracle of the transformation of common elements—bread and wine—into the Lord's Body and Blood. Once we have received the Lord, the multiplication begins, for in the Eucharist we are strengthened to multiply our efforts to feed the poor, shelter the homeless, and bring comfort to the despairing.

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — When they had eaten, there was some left over, as the LORD had said (2 Kings 4:42-44).

Psalm — The hand of the Lord feeds us; he answers all our needs (Psalm 145).

Second Reading — Strive to preserve the unity of the spirit through the bond of peace (Ephesians 4:1-6).

Gospel — Jesus took the loaves, gave thanks, and distributed them to those who were reclining, and also as much of the fish as they wanted (John 6:1-15).

SEVENTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Andrew said to Jesus,
"There is a boy here who has five barley loaves and two fish;
but what good are these for so many?"

John 6:8-9

ONE SURE WAY TO MEET
JESUS IS AT A MEAL.
PASS THE BREAD, PLEASE

So the men reclined, about five thousand in number.
Then Jesus took the loaves, gave thanks,
and distributed them to those who were reclining, and also as much of the fish as they wanted. Jn 6:10-11

The Library Corner

Good Sunday to you! We, in the Library, have been busy. Two of our most recent additions are:

Why Do Catholics...?, by Sister Charlene Altemose, MSC.

Sister explains the reasons for many of the practices and customs that we Catholics so often take for granted but do not fully understand.

Sometimes I Haven't Got a Prayer, by Mary K. Sherry.

"She writes of the mysteries and manners ... and the deep-down peace that comes when you plumb the depths of the Catholic faith" (from the foreword).

And please don't forget the RSRL (Recommended Summer Reading List). Two more of the selections are given below. These books are grouped together in the library and are, we think, both entertaining and informative of our Catholic faith.

For Greater Glory: The True Story of the Cristiada, by Ruben Quezada. (A part of world history that must not be forgotten.)

Augustine: Major Writings, edited with commentaries by Fr. Benedict J. Groeschel. (This looks to be a terrific guided entre into the mind and works of a major Church Father.)

Lots of great summer reading. Next week we will be on the Patio with these and other exciting books.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Last Wednesday, the greatest pilgrimage in our tradition ended with the feast of Saint James at his shrine in Compostela, Spain. Every year, as many as a hundred thousand persons walk a portion of the medieval way of the pilgrim, earning the right to wear the scallop shell symbol of this journey of faith. In legend, this city on the northern coast of Spain is the final resting place of the apostle, and the full name of the cathedral is "Saint James of the Field of Stars." There is a tradition that Saint James the Great preached there.

In the Roman Catholic tradition, the pilgrimage, like any procession, is a symbol, life's journey distilled, a powerful sign of our journey toward a certain goal. The perils of the road, the support of companions, the contemplative slower pace of life, have the potential to transform and renew the pilgrims in ways that last a lifetime. Along the way, the distinctions between rich and poor fall away, and everyone shares humble rustic food and stops for the night in hostels or under the stars. After a long walk, the experience of entering through the great doors into the vast cathedral filled with incense, light, and song is a foretaste of heaven. The pilgrims often say that their whole lives are redirected toward that moment of entry into the heavenly Jerusalem. The most memorable feature of the cathedral is called the botofumeiro, an incense burner on pulleys and chains that sweeps through the cathedral in immense circles, swirling clouds of sweet-smelling incense around the vast nave (pictured below).

AUGUST

Are the demands of family, friends, and work more than you can bear at times? Do you ever feel small in the face of the many needs of the world? We all have those moments when we feel that "there just isn't enough of me to go around." We can think about these moments as we hear Elijah's servant and Philip wonder how many people can be fed with such a meager amount of food. Yet both found the bounty of God's goodness, as those small gifts were multiplied to feed a multitude. It is true that there isn't enough of each of us to go around. But with God's grace, together as members of Christ's body, we are sure to find that there is something each of us can bring so that the love of God may be known.

A LITTLE

Put yourself in the place of the boy in today's Gospel. He had five barley loaves and two fish. Probably just enough for himself and his family, or a friend who made the journey to hear Jesus with him. What must he have thought, as he heard Andrew tell the Lord about the meal he had brought with him? Did he go to Andrew to tell him about the food, and offer it, or did someone notice that he had the food and let the others know? However it came to pass, the boy's gifts were called forth, and his small meal was given to the Lord. The boy trusted that in Jesus' hands, his barley loaves and fish would be put to good use. Jesus blessed the loaves and fish and fed thousands with them.

BECOMES A LOT

In the hands of the Lord, the little the boy's food became a feast for many. Each of us has been given particular gifts and talents--the minutes, hours, and days that make up our lives, and material and financial resources. We may feel that it is barely enough for us. We might hesitate before we give anything to another, out of fear that we will not have enough, or simply because we do not let the need of the other into our mind and heart. Like the boy in the Gospel, our gifts may seem insignificant; we may feel that the little we have is not enough to truly make a difference in the life of another. Any who have given of themselves in service know that very often the opposite is true, however. We gain so much more than we give! Our gifts are called forth in community. We must trust that in giving for the sake of another, God's love will be known and shared. Copyright (c) J. S. Paluch Co., Inc.

Free Day Retreat of the Dominican Laity at St. Mary's in Fullerton

The Orange County chapter of the Dominican Laity, the lay branch ("secular third order") of the Order of Preachers of St. Dominic, invites everyone to their annual retreat day on Saturday, August 18, in one of the parish classrooms of St. Mary's Catholic Church in Fullerton (400 W. Commonwealth Ave.) Fr. Justin Gable, O.P., prior in San Francisco and philosophy professor in Berkeley, will lead the retreat on practical lay spirituality in the Dominican tradition. The retreat will begin at 12 noon with lunch and close with Holy Mass at 5:30 P.M. in the parish church. All are welcome; the retreat is free and requires no formal registration, but we would greatly appreciate a quick message from you on how many people in your party we should expect for our head count: call (leave a message) or text: (714) 471-3673 (Michael). You may also email us: dlooc@saintmarysfullerton.org.
