My Dear People,

Today's theme on the Readings: FAITH AND HOPE

Faith and hope are closely united in today's readings. The Israelites knew when the Passover was coming, and so were not in fear, but had faith and courage, "putting into effect with one accord the divine institution." In this we can see a foretelling of the Eucharist that we celebrate according to Christ's command, "Do this in memory of me."

We see that Abraham, Sarah, Isaac, and Jacob died in faith, although they did not see fulfillment of the promise. We live in hope that our faith will be fulfilled every time we celebrate this sacrament. We too are not to be afraid, but to have hope that our faith will be fulfilled in the coming of Christ.

Father John

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

When Pope Pius XII died in 1958, there was the usual buzz of speculation about likely successors. Cardinal Agagianian, Patriarch of the Armenians, was highly thought of as a likely choice. This took many Catholics by surprise, since he had never celebrated the same liturgy as Pope Pius, but followed ancient Armenian customs according to the Eastern Church, which veils the Eucharistic liturgy from sight by a series of curtains, and in which the priest kneels while the people stand for Communion.

In the years that followed, the Second Vatican Council would affirm the dignity and independence of the Eastern Churches, in complete union with Rome, yet different in patterns of life and worship. We have the same faith, the same sacraments, and the same pope. Yet everywhere in the world our separate Churches are combined into families held together by the ministry of bishops. All of this serves as warning: If you ever say, "But we've always done it this way," you are on very thin ice indeed!

Want to develop an adult perspective on the Catholic Faith?

Already Baptized a Catholic but want Confirmation?

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults ("RCIA") is the path that will enable an adult to accomplish any of these goals. We offer interesting, weekly short talks with opportunities for discussion and questions.

If you know someone who would like to explore the faith, feel free to accompany that person if they might not feel comfortable by themselves. RCIA is offered in English, Spanish, Vietnamese, and Chinese. The Spanish, Vietnamese, and Chinese presentations are all mixed language (= a little bit of English).

Please contact Mike Michalek at 949-551-2304 or michalekm@sprintmail.com, if you have any questions or would like to understand more about RCIA.

Contact Deacon Leonard Sun if you have questions in Chinese at 714-932-1689 or lishiung@gmail.com.

Contact Martin Nguyen if you have any questions in Vietnamese at 949-544-9837 or martin7277027@gmail.com.

Our first meeting will be September 15th at 7:30 pm in the parish hall during which we will decide when we will meet during the coming year so that every interested party is accommodated.
