My Dear People,

Today's theme on the Readings: POST-SUMMER CHALLENGES

With any luck, summer delights will continue a while past last weekend's Labor Day: refreshing recreation (with maybe an occasional swim) or enjoyable relaxation on the deck (with tasty outdoor grilling). Truth is, for some of us, this year's Labor Day came way too early. With many schools back in session for a while already, mealtimes and driving schedules needed readjustment to coordinate youth sports with adult commitments. Some religious education and parish programs resumed, too. No surprise, then, that this weekend's scriptures sound a little like post-summer challenges. For instance, Wisdom reminds us that believers in God can never be content with "timid deliberations" and "unsure plans." Paul challenges longtime friend and follower Philemon to "let the good you do be voluntary." Jesus instructs "great crowds" traveling with him—including us—on three things necessary for all true disciples to accomplish. On this early autumn weekend, our scriptures describe disciples' lifelong labors. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

In Christ,
Father John

The Library Corner

Hello! Today is Grandparent's Day and a perfect time to re-visit our section on Prayer and Devotion. After all, are not Grandparent's called to be prayer warriors and supportive catechists in the lives of their grandchildren?

In this section you will find books ranging from Thomas Dubay's Fire Within to In the Zone: A Guide to Teen Prayer, by Life Teen. I want to highlight a very useful and practical guide book titled The How-To Book of Catholic Devotions, by Mike Aquilina and Regis Flaherty. The book gives step-by-step guidelines, explains each devotion, walks you through the process, and helps you deal with distractions and other obstacles. Fr. Ronald Lawler, O.F.M. Cap. says, "This ... book shows you how to plunge in and do all the things devout Catholics do. ... while knowing why." Seems perfect for Grandparents or anyone seeking to deepen their knowledge and understanding of our Catholic heritage. Please stop by.

We need help at the Patio Library Table after both the 5:30pm Mass on Sat. and the 5:00pm Mass on Sun. If you would like to be a part of our ministry and share about 30 minutes of your time once each month please contact me (Jay Hills) at ajhills@cox.net. Thank you!

TODAY is always the day!
 If we knew at what time we were to depart from this world, we would be able to select a season for pleasure and another for repentance.
 But God, who has promised pardon to every repentant sinner, has not promised us tomorrow. Therefore, we must always anticipate the final day, which we can never foresee.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Eastern Catholic and Orthodox Christians share a love for the Byzantine liturgy because it is during the Eucharist that the Church is most true to its identity, expresses its integrity, and discovers its vocation. Eastern Catholic and Orthodox Christians celebrate essentially the identical liturgy, with only very slight variations. It is a fairly complex ritual weaving together three separate layers of prayers: a liturgy prayed in the sanctuary by priests, often hidden by a curtain or screen; a liturgy sung by the assembly and led by a deacon in front of a screen formed of painted icons; and a third layer of private prayer by the priest, who prays in support of the deacon and the faithful. It is an eyes-wide-open experience, gorgeous in visuals, and filled with the sound of God's people singing prayer. The energy of the worship centers on the presence of Christ, largely through an awareness of heaven touching earth when the Church gathers to celebrate.

In the late twentieth century, Latin Rite Catholics were encouraged to embrace a style of worship that was "full, conscious, and active," a value that has never been lost in the East. The liturgy has great impact in its beauty, in its poetry and contemplation, and by the actions of bowing, signing with the cross, and chanting that are required of the assembly. Contact with the Eastern Church reveals some key values that have been obscured in our own Church and are slowly being recovered.

Interested in becoming Catholic?

Want to develop an adult perspective on the Catholic Faith?

Already Baptized a Catholic but want Confirmation?

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults ("RCIA") is the path that will enable an adult to accomplish any of these goals. We offer interesting, weekly short talks with opportunities for discussion and questions.

If you know someone who would like to explore the faith, feel free to accompany that person if they might not feel comfortable by themselves. RCIA is offered in English, Spanish, Vietnamese, and Chinese. The Spanish, Vietnamese, and Chinese presentations are all mixed language (= a little bit of English).

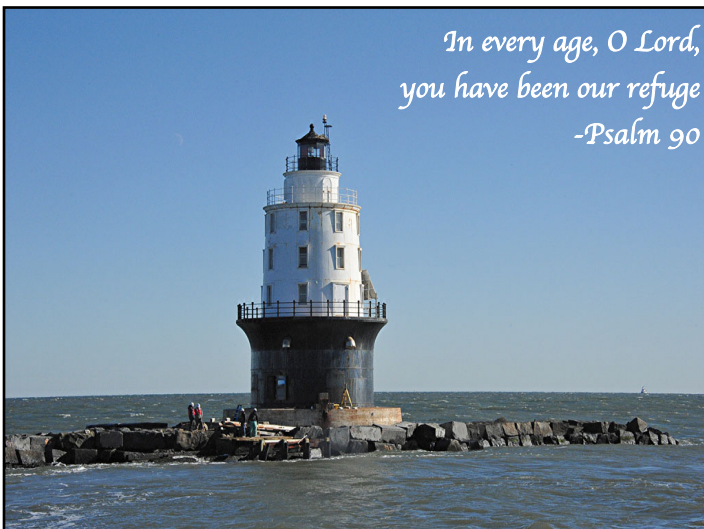

Please contact Mike Michalek at 949-551-2304 or michalekm@sprintmail.com, if you have any questions or would like to understand more about RCIA.

Contact Deacon Leonard Sun if you have questions in Chinese at 714-932-1689 or lishiung@gmail.com.

Contact Martin Nguyen if you have any questions in Vietnamese at 949-544-9837 or martin7277027@gmail.com.

Si tiene preguntas o esta interesado en conocer un poco mas de RCIA en Español, puede contactar a Otilia Chen al 949-394-3227 o via correo electronico tili\_29@yahoo.com.

Our first meeting will be September 15th at 7:30 pm in the parish hall during which we will decide when we will meet during the coming year.
