Welcoming all, we, the Spirit-filled parish of St. Thomas More, value our Roman Catholic faith by celebrating the sacraments, breaking open the Scriptures, and joyfully offering ourselves in service to others.

Under the inspiration of our patron saint, we seek to build a caring community that embraces the values he modeled of friendship, integrity and courageous love of God.

My Dear People,

Today's theme on the readings: THE DEMANDS OF DISCIPLESHIP

Today we encounter readings that already have a Lenten feel about them. Nineveh undergoes a forty-day fast, the psalmist reminds us that God alone can show sinners the way, Paul shows us how fleeting the things and events of this world are, and Jesus cries out "Repent!" before he calls his new followers. "Come after me," Jesus says, but if we are to truly live out the commands and demands of our discipleship through baptism, we must first know our need for conversion, our repentance, our need to believe in the gospel fully. Today's Gospel opens with the stark reminder of what befell John the Baptist for completely living out his vocation as the herald of Christ and the gospel: he was arrested, imprisoned, and martyred. Though few of us will experience consequences that extreme, we must all be ready to risk some sort of rejection as, heeding the call of Jesus, we live out the kingdom of God at hand, repent of our sins, and believe in the good news of salvation.

In Christ,
Fr. John

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

One of the most unusual Catholic churches in the world is in Amsterdam: Our Lord in the Attic, or as the locals say, "Ons Lieve Heer op Solder." What looks like a beautiful narrow brick mansion alongside a canal is a clever disguise for a very well-preserved seventeenth-century home and a secret church. During the Reformation, the Netherlands was divided into Protestant Holland and the Spanish Netherlands, now known as Belgium, a Catholic stronghold. Protestant reformers seized all the Catholic parishes in Holland and "de-Catholicized" them. New laws forbade the celebration of the Mass in public. St. Nicholas Church was renamed "Old Church" by the new owners, and the dispossessed Catholics got to work "hiding" St. Nicholas Parish in the upper floors of this mansion. Other Catholics did the same thing, but this is the only hidden church that survives today. Sunday Mass is still celebrated here.

It's a beautiful hideaway, with nothing spared in regard to marble, gilding, a pipe organ, and classic Dutch painting. A few steps away, the Old Church, begun in 1250, stands emptied of the statues and carvings of its Catholic days, its windows replaced by plain glass. The new tenants gave up when it came to the ceiling, which is still painted with saints, biblical scenes, and merchant ships. The Dutch reformers were tolerant sorts, and as long as the Catholics kept out of sight, they were out of mind. Catholicism was at last tolerated in Holland after 1853, but in 1924 when the International Eucharistic Congress was held in Amsterdam, processions of Catholics were still forbidden in the streets. Today, Roman Catholics are about 19 percent of the population, and there's no need for any of them to hide in the attic.

THE LIBRARY CORNER

Hello from the library. This week I would like to share with you an introduction to one of our recent additions. The book is actually the transcript of the "lengthy, candid, and exclusive interview" granted by Pope Francis and given to appear in several Jesuit magazines around the world. This interview came just six months into his papacy and is an intimate look into the life and thought of Francis, the first Jesuit to become pope and the first pope from Latin America. The interview covers a wide range of topics including: who is Jorge Mario Bergoglio, the Church as Field Hospital, and Women in the life of the Church.

Title: A Big Heart Open To God

The book, of 150 pages, includes the entire papal interview, a foreword written by Matt Malone, SJ, responses from several clergy and lay Catholics, and reflections written by Fr. James S. Martin, SJ, author of, My Life with the Saints. This looks to be an excellent read that will leave us with a better understanding of our Pope. Available in the library in our Biography section.

Building our new permanent church is an exciting chapter in our journey as a faith community and will require continued prayers and support from the entire St. Thomas More family to become a reality. Our project is an ambitious, yet a noble and compelling one. We have made significant progress in the first year of our campaign raising $5,277,372 in pledges from 1024 families. Much more work remains however, in order to raise the funds necessary to begin construction. Our parish journey leading to the completion of our new church facility is a long one. With God all things are possible!

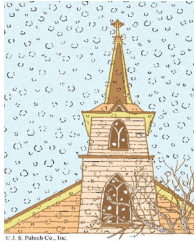

Thank You for Your Generous and Ongoing Support!

Campaign Prayer

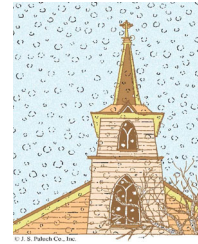

Heavenly Father, Thank you for watching over the people of Saint Thomas More Parish and helping us to Believe and Grow Together. As we build our new church in your honor, we ask you Lord to open our eyes to your countless gifts and, with a spirit of gratitude, help our community to make a joyful return to you.

St. Thomas More pray for us. Amen.
