Welcoming all, we, the Spirit-filled parish of St. Thomas More, value our Roman Catholic faith by celebrating the sacraments, breaking open the Scriptures, and joyfully offering ourselves in service to others.

Under the inspiration of our patron saint, we seek to build a caring community that embraces the values he modeled of friendship, integrity and courageous love of God.

My Dear People,

Today's theme on the readings: TIRELESS DISCIPLESHIP

The stories we've been hearing these weeks come from the very first chapter of Mark, and they show us the public ministry of Jesus in its infancy. Today's account shows some of the strain or adjustment of his new life of preaching the reign of God, healing the sick, and casting out demons. Notice that after sunset, when darkness ended the workday, people brought the sick and possessed to Jesus. The following day he rose before dawn to get away by himself to pray, but to no avail. Simon Peter and the others don't just look for him, they pursue him, filled with the fervor that his ministry has incited. With the self-sacrificing example he gave until the end of his earthly life, he tells his followers that this is his whole purpose. Through Mark, he is also telling the early church, and he is telling us, that this is our purpose, our vocation: to be tireless in our pursuit of proclaiming the Good News, and in bringing the healing, reconciling touch of Christ to the world.

In Christ,
Fr. John

What is Christian Stewardship?

"Stewardship is a way of life based on gratitude for all of God's generous gifts. Stewardship is an act of worship, rather than an obligation."

— Orange Catholic Foundation

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

We're reading St. Paul's letter to the Corinthians these days. What was Corinth like? It had a beautiful setting on an isthmus, about fifty miles from Athens. The location makes for very easy exchange by sea routes between Greece and Italy, a factor in its economic success even today. In Paul's day it was a cosmopolitan and wealthy city with inhabitants drawn from all over the world, including a sizeable Jewish community. When Paul arrived about the year 50, the city was only about a century old, but already five times the size of Athens. Paul lived in Corinth for a year and a half, and a few years later came back for three months. The community of Christians there struggled against the influence of a very secular and self-indulgent society that was blind to the plight of the poor. Pagan attitudes afflicted the community, which had a way of breaking Paul's heart; he wrote to them sometimes "with many tears" (2 Corinthians 2:4).

Today, Corinth is a small industrial city. Its historic core has been destroyed by a series of earthquakes over the centuries, and what little remained was totally obliterated in a war with Turkey in the 1820s. There's a city with glamorous shops to catch the tourists, but it is mainly a cargo port, with piles of marble, tiles, and minerals, an oil refinery nearby, a busy canal, a modern fast rail line to Athens, and a meeting point of major highways. Today, the remains of the Temple of Apollo and the marketplace are more ruined than most such sites. The glory of the city Paul knew well has faded, but the relevance of his words shines through the centuries. —Rev. James Field, Copyright ©

THE LIBRARY CORNER

Hello! We have many really good books available for you in the library and today I want to share with you one that I am currently reading, (for the second time). I think you would enjoy it. With some other men, in a small Faith Group, I am re-reading Matthew Kelly's book, Resisting Happiness. You may recall this book. It has a bright yellow cover and was given to all of us as a gift from the parish. My first reading was quick and superficial and of little reward. However, going through it with my brothers in the group, I am finding so much more of real value. Kelly's words strike many familiar chords and have produced several hours of thoughtful sharing and discovery. Resistance has a familiar face that I am sure you will recognize. Anyone who has read The Screwtape Letters by C.S. Lewis will be quick to see Screwtape and Wormwood busily at work in their diabolic efforts to disturb and destroy the Christian's peace and joy. If you have not read that C.S. Lewis classic, do yourself a favor and do so. It is also available in the library. If you have a copy of Resisting Happiness at home but haven't yet begun to read, pick it up and get started. (If you do not have one, come by the library). Read it carefully and I can't help but believe that you will be pleasantly surprised at the spiritual and practical wisdom that is contained in this short but worthwhile volume. Enjoy!
Resolve To Read.

FLU SEASON ETIQUETTE

With the arrival of the cold and flu season, we thought we would provide some helpful guidelines for your participation in the Liturgy. If you are sick, consider staying home. Please remember that it is not a sin to miss Mass because you are sick. If you are attending Mass, please be understanding if your neighbor is choosing not to shake hands. A simple gesture like a smile or bow of the head would be appropriate to demonstrate the mutual charity celebrated at that time during Mass. During this season, please strongly consider receiving the Eucharist in the hand only. Receiving the Eucharist under both species is up to the individual. It is important to remember, however, that Christ is truly and completely present under each of the sacramental signs of either bread or wine. Therefore, if you are ill, please consider refraining from the cup during this flu season.
