The Library Corner

The St Thomas More Parish Library staff would like to wish all our parishioners a Happy Palm Sunday. The Parish Library will not be open today.

This week the Catholic church will celebrate the Passion of the Lord. The STM Parish Library has a great book of the Passion that conveys a lasting impression of the terrible agony of our Lord; of His infinite love for us that motivated His agony and how His Passion and Death were brought on by our sin. The name of this book is, 'The Dolorous Passion of our Lord Jesus Christ,' as seen by beatified Anne Catherine Emmerich. Sister Emmerich was privileged by God, during almost a lifetime of ecstatic visions, to see all the events of our Lord's suffering and death. Her account of the Passion and Death of our Lord Jesus Christ, while faithful to the Bible, is heartrending, edifying and filled with intimate detail. This book recounts with incredible precision the horrendous sufferings undergone by our Savior in His passionate heroic act for our Redemption. (LOC) Laus tibi, Christe

HOLY THURSDAY 7 CHURCHES VISITATION

Join Fr. Eugene and Fr. Thomas as they travel together to seven churches within our Diocese to pray at each church's Altar of Repose. These seven visits represent the final seven places or “stations” Jesus journeyed, from his arrest in the Garden of Gethsemane on Holy Thursday to his crucifixion and death. We will meet in our courtyard after the Holy Thursday Mass for further instructions. We encourage people to carpool. This may take a few hours to complete.

FASTING In the dioceses in the United States, Catholics aged 18 through 59 are bound to fast on both Ash Wednesday and Good Friday, March 29th. To fast means a person is permitted to eat one full meal, as well as two smaller meals that together are not equal to a full meal. Food and drink between meals (excepting water and medicine) is not permitted on fast days.

ABSTINENCE FROM MEAT

Catholics aged 14 and up are to abstain from meat on Ash Wednesday, all Fridays of Lent, and Good Friday. To abstain means refraining from eating beef, veal, pork, or poultry at least, although eggs and milk products are acceptable. The consumption of fish and shellfish is permitted, though the penitential character of the abstinence should be kept in mind.
