ALL IN!

SECOND COLLECTION
MAY 6TH & 7TH

This weekend, all people of the Diocese of Orange will have the opportunity to donate to the Parishes in Collaboration Collection. This collection is for the purpose of assisting parishes in the Diocese of Orange that exhibit ongoing needs that cannot be paid for by their ordinary income and have urgent needs (such as repairs and maintenance). All money donated to this collection is put into a restricted fund that is administered by a group consisting of laity and clergy of the diocese. Parishes with needs as stated above may apply for grants from this fund to be used for their specific needs. Most recently the committee has focused the grants to safety issues including emergency electrical, plumbing repairs and roofing. By participating in the Parishes in Collaboration Collection, all people of the Diocese of Orange are helping one another support the works of our parishes that struggle financially. Thank you for your generosity!

The Library Corner

The Parish Library will not be open today.

How firm is your faith and how strong is your practice of it? We have a tendency to focus on the here and now and fall into the trap of thinking that we will live a long time, and what we do and don't do really doesn't matter that much. The fact of divine revelation is that the soul who dies in the state of grace, but without having made sufficient expiation on earth for forgiven sins, will undergo the punishment and purification of Purgatory before entering Heaven. The STM Parish Library has an exceptional book on this topic entitled, 'Purgatory Explained', authored by Father F.X. Schouppe. Father Schouppe reveals scores of true stories of apparitions and revelations on Purgatory taken from the lives of our living Saints. These amazing revelations all emphasize the wonderful relief which the souls in Purgatory receive from our prayers, penance, almsgiving and especially from the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass offered for them. Purgatory is a reminder that this life has an end, and we will all one day be asked to give an account of ourselves. Today, we can make a spiritual investment, through our Catholic faith, that will return to us a hundredfold towards our salvation.

Sunday's Readings

First Reading:

So the Twelve called together the community of the disciples and said,
"It is not right for us to neglect the word of God to serve at table.

Brothers, select from among you seven reputable men, filled with the Spirit and wisdom, whom we shall appoint to this task, whereas we shall devote ourselves to prayer and to the ministry of the word." (Acts 6:2-4)

Psalm:

Lord, let your mercy be on us, as we place our trust in you. (Ps 33)

Or Alleluia.

Second Reading:

You are "a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people of his own, so that you may announce the praises" of him who called you out of darkness into his wonderful light. (1 Pt 2:9)

Gospel:

Jesus said to him,

"I am the way and the truth and the life.

No one comes to the Father except through me.

If you know me, then you will also know my Father." (Jn 14:6-7)
