Saint Thomas More Welcomes All

Welcoming all, we, the Spirit-filled parish of St. Thomas More, value our Roman Catholic faith by celebrating the sacraments, breaking open the Scriptures, and joyfully offering ourselves in service to others. Under the inspiration of our patron saint, we seek to build a caring community that embraces the values he modeled of friendship, integrity and courageous love of God.

Welcome back!

We are happy you are here!

Per the guidelines from the Diocese, fully vaccinated people are not required to wear a mask for Mass. However, those who are not fully vaccinated, including children, are still asked to wear a mask to ensure the health of all our parishioners. Fully vaccinated means they have had both doses of the Pfizer or Moderna vaccine or one dose of the Johnson & Johnson vaccine for at least two weeks.

A Personal note from Fr. Eugene:

Dear Brothers and Sisters of St. Thomas More Parish,

As I prepare to transition into your beautiful community, I want to express my gratitude to God. I am all yours because I am all Christ's. Ready to learn, ready to lead, ready to rock for Jesus. Fr. John Janze has led this parish to be a loving, warm, and inviting place, and his gentle ways offer to me a living challenge to continue to provide for you steadfast, Christ-like leadership. We must continue to be a Pentecost people, on fire with the Holy Spirit, ready to do our part to set the world on fire with the Gospel. Let us remain united in reverent prayer and sacrificial service. Let us have fun and let's continue to build our corner of God's Kingdom!

See you soon! -Fr. Eugene

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — They were all filled with the Holy Spirit, and began to speak in different tongues (Acts 2:1-11).

Psalm — Lord, send out your Spirit, and renew the face of the earth (Psalm 104).

Second Reading — There are different kinds of spiritual gifts but the same Spirit (1 Corinthians 12:3b-7, 12-13) or Galatians 5:16-25.

Gospel — As the Father has sent me, so I send you: Receive the Holy Spirit (John 20:19-23) or John 15:26-27; 16:12-15. The English translation of the Psalm Responses from the Lectionary for Mass © 1969, 1981, 1997, International Commission on English in the Liturgy Corporation. All rights reserved.

My Dear People,

Today's theme on the Readings: LORD, SEND OUT YOUR SPIRIT

In today's responsorial psalm the Church sings out: "Lord, send out your Spirit, and renew the face of the earth." All three readings describe how God has answered that prayer already.

In the first reading from the Acts of the Apostles and in the Gospel passage from John, we read of astonishing events that called cowering disciples to step out of hiding and proclaim news that would condemn them and change the world forever! In the second reading Paul's words reach out into the future to us: "we were all given to drink of one Spirit" (1 Corinthians 12:13).

It is our task to truly pray today's psalm response. Let us together beg the Holy Spirit to renew the earth by renewing the Church, sending many more men and women to serve in its various ministries.

The Library Corner

Pentecost Sunday

The St Thomas More Parish Library staff would like to wish all our parishioners a Happy Pentecost Sunday. The Library will be closed until further notice.

Today the scripture tells us how the Disciples gathered together in one place and how a loud sound and violent wind came and filled the house. This is where the Disciples were filled by the Holy Spirit, had tongues of fire and started to prophesin foreign languages. The Apostles, who shortly before had hid in fear behind locked doors, now came forth and courageously walked among the multitude speaking to each in his native tongue about the gift of faith in Jesus. As Catholics we know that when we are baptized into His Church, we receive this great gift of the Holy Spirit.

NEW SUMMER BIBLE STUDY!

James: Pearls for Wise Living

James is one of the most practical books of the Bible. Its teachings speak loudly to those who feel torn between the competing demands of this world and their faith.

This study is an 11-week video study program offering "pearls for wise living" by applying the wisdom of James to our current day. For anyone who has struggled to live a truly Christian life, James offers a wealth of practical solutions for handling and even sanctifying everyday circumstances.

St. Thomas More will begin a brand new Saturday Bible Study on June 5th at 9:00 AM

Participants will view a video during the week and meet via Zoom every Saturday for a lively group discussion and fellowship.

GET TO KNOW FR. EUGENE LEE

Fr. Eugene was born in Philadelphia on June 1, 1974. His parents immigrated from Korea. He grew up in Long Beach, CA from about 4 years old. He attended Bethany Baptist School in Long Beach from kindergarten to eighth grade. He has fond memories of this school, especially the creative and engaging ways in which they taught about the Bible and preached. His freshman and sophomore years were at St. John Bosco High School in Bellflower and then he transferred to Woodrow Wilson High School which was much closer to his home (and was co-ed!). Fr. Eugene majored in English at California State University in Long Beach. As he was graduating college, he began to more intensely discern his calling to the priesthood. He went to Korea from December of 1997 to July of 1998 to study Korean, to find his roots, and to explore life. After returning from Korea, Fr. Eugene entered St. John's Seminary in the fall of 1998. He studied there for 2 years before transferring to Mount Angel Seminary in Oregon. His one-year internship was at St. Bonaventure Church in Huntington Beach, and his deaconate assignment was St. Pius X Church in Portland. He was ordained as a priest on June 12, 2004.

His first assignment was Our Lady Queen of Angels in Newport Beach where he served for five years. Simultaneously, he also led the Korean community which used to be based at St. Elizabeth Ann Seton in Irvine (but is now Our Lady of Peace Korean Catholic Center located at the former property of St. Thomas More). Next, he was assigned as the associate director (like a parochial vicar) at St. Thomas Korean Catholic Center in Anaheim for 3 years.

Fr. Eugene's home parish is Korean Martyrs Catholic Center in Westminster where he received his faith formation as a child and became very involved during his young adult years. He attributes this church as where he received his salvation, where he met Christ and where he found his vocation. He received his First Communion, his Confirmation and did his first Mass at this parish. By God's blessings, the Bishop assigned Fr. Eugene years later to be director (pastor) at his home parish, where he has been for the past nine and half years.

His father, Nicholas, was a physician (an OBGYN) for 42 years practicing at Long Beach Memorial Hospital and St. Mary's Medical Center in Long Beach. His mother, Sue, was the office manager at her husband's practice for many years. He has a younger sister, Bonnie, now married with 3 daughters, and a younger brother, married with 3 sons and a daughter.

Fr. Eugene's baptism name and patron saint is St. Justin the Martyr and apologist. His all-time favorite movie is Braveheart (1995). He loves to cycle, tinkers with tennis, and thinks eating is a chore. He has a small dog named Mocha, a shih-tzu who he has had for almost 11 years and absolutely adores! He prefers to vacation in nature than in cities. His favorite saints are, St. Peter Julian Eymard, St. John Paul II, St. Peter the Apostle, and St. Joseph and most especially our Blessed Mother Mary with whom he maintains an abiding devotion. He has been profoundly impacted by the apparitions at Fatima (1916). He loves the pilgrimage to the Holy Land and has gone on mission trips to serve in the ghettos of Jamaica about 10 times. He has been the spiritual director for the English-speaking side of the Southern California Korean Cursillo Movement for the past 8 years. He has served in various committees and positions for the Diocese of Orange over the years. He likes fast food too much and needs to get rid of more sugar from his diet! His all-time favorite Bible verse is Hebrews 12:28.

FEAST OF FAITH Liturgy: Work of the Spirit

The Spirit of God who hovered over the waters at the dawn of creation—the Holy Spirit who descended upon the disciples at Pentecost in ever-changing forms in the sound of a mighty wind or tongues of flame—hovers also over our celebration of the liturgy, giving it life, making it real. It is the Spirit of God who draws us, gathering us together, Sunday after Sunday. It is the Spirit of God who called loudly to the inspired writers of the scriptures and who continues to whisper to us, revealing ever-new facets of God's word, granting insight just when we need it. It is by the Spirit's power that, when Christ's words are uttered by the priest, the bread and wine become the Body and Blood of Christ. And it is surely the Spirit who inspires us—that is, breathes in us—when, sent forth from the assembly, we seek ways to serve our brothers and sisters, to allow the gospel to come to life in the world. Come, Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful, and kindle in them the fire of your love.

PENTECOST SUNDAY

MAY 23, 2021

COME, HOLY SPIRIT, COME!

Come, Holy Spirit! Today we celebrate Pentecost, the outpouring of the Holy Spirit upon the first disciples and on all who are baptized. We also commemorate the birth of the Church. Before Pentecost, the disciples remained hidden and uncertain; at Pentecost, those who were gathered were filled with the Spirit and proclaimed the wonders of the Good News of Christ to all. The Spirit guides us to the truth of Christ's love and mercy and strengthens us to live as disciples. Without the Holy Spirit, we would perish; with the Spirit, we have life to the full. Relying on the Spirit, we are given the grace to turn away from the many temptations that we face each day and prefer instead what is good and holy. Come, Holy Spirit, come!

THE FRUIT OF THE SPIRIT

As followers of Jesus, we are called to direct our minds and hearts to Christ's love, turning away from all that is not of God in order to be more Christ-like in our daily lives. The more we invite the Holy Spirit to draw us close to God's heart, the more readily we will avoid sin and choose life, faith, and love. In the letter to the Galatians, we hear a list of things that those who live in the Spirit are to avoid. Things like immorality, hatred, jealousy, and selfishness. At first glance, we might think to ourselves, "of course I want to avoid those things," and yet, if we are honest with ourselves, we likely recognize some of those patterns in our lives. Upon further reflection, however, we also see that these negative behaviors pose temporary pleasure while the fruits of the Spirit—love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, generosity, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control—lead to a life of deep and lasting fulfillment.

NOTHING WILL STAND IN THE WAY

The Jewish people who had gathered in Jerusalem for the festival of Pentecost came from every corner of the world. They spoke many languages and yet were drawn to hear the message of Christ from the disciples who had just experienced the outpouring of the Holy Spirit. They were astonished by what they heard—not only the message, but the way in which it was conveyed, in their own language, and by the messengers, people whom they would have considered ordinary and unremarkable, rather than the acknowledged religious leaders of their time. We, too, are called to share the love and mercy of Christ through word and action, even when we feel small and insignificant. We need only to look at the witness and experience of those first disciples and all the saints who have preceded us to know that we are capable of much when we place our lives in God's hands. Nothing can stand in the way of the incredible love of God when we are filled with the power and presence of the Holy Spirit!
