A Personal note from Fr. Eugene:

Dear Brothers and Sisters of St. Thomas More Parish,

As I prepare to transition into your beautiful community, I want to express my gratitude to God. I am all yours because I am all Christ's. Ready to learn, ready to lead, ready to rock for Jesus. Fr. John Janze has led this parish to be a loving, warm, and inviting place, and his gentle ways offer to me a living challenge to continue to provide for you steadfast, Christ-like leadership. We must continue to be a Pentecost people, on fire with the Holy Spirit, ready to do our part to set the world on fire with the Gospel. Let us remain united in reverent prayer and sacrificial service. Let us have fun and let's continue to build our corner of God's Kingdom!

See you soon! -Fr. Eugene

My Dear People,

Today's theme on the Readings: THE MYSTERY OF THE BLESSED TRINITY

Today we celebrate the solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity. The Church sets aside this Sunday to focus our attention on the mystery of the Blessed Trinity, God who is one, but three persons—Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

The first reading from Deuteronomy emphasizes both God's awesome greatness and amazing nearness. It might seem beyond belief, but the God of all creation speaks to us, protects us, and guides us. The second reading from Saint Paul's Letter to the Romans describes how we are to relate to the three persons who are one God. We are led by the Spirit to meet God the Father as adopted children. Our adoption is such that we are even heirs with our brother, Christ, the second person of the Trinity, in whose sufferings we must also share. In Matthew's Gospel, Jesus speaks with his authority as God and sends us to teach and baptize in the name of the Trinity. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

In Christ,
Father John

The Library Corner

Solemnity of The Most Holy Trinity

The St. Thomas More Parish Library staff would like to wish all our parishioners a Most Holy Trinity Sunday. The Library will be closed until further notice.

The gospel today tells us, as Christians, that the Blessed Trinity is in whose name all are Baptized into His Church. As Catholics we know that there is one God and in this one God there are three Divine Persons; the Father is God, the Son is God, and the Holy Spirit is God. As Jesus told his Disciples, 'go forth, make disciples of all nations, and Baptize them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit,' and that, 'I am with you always, to the end of time.'

NEW SUMMER BIBLE STUDY!

James: Pearls for Wise Living

James is one of the most practical books of the Bible. Its teachings speak loudly to those who feel torn between the competing demands of this world and their faith.

This study is an 11-week video study program offering "pearls for wise living" by applying the wisdom of James to our current day. For anyone who has struggled to live a truly Christian life, James offers a wealth of practical solutions for handling and even sanctifying everyday circumstances.

St. Thomas More will begin a brand new Saturday Bible Study on June 5th at 9:00 AM

Participants will view a video during the week and meet via Zoom every Saturday for a lively group discussion and fellowship.

Just a Common Soldier by A. Lawrence Vaincourt

He was getting old and paunchy and his hair was falling fast,
And he sat around the Legion, telling stories of the past.
Of a war that he had fought in and the deeds that he had done,
In his exploits with his buddies; they were heroes, every one.

And tho' sometimes, to his neighbors, his tales became a joke,
All his Legion buddies listened, for they knew whereof he spoke.
But we'll hear his tales no longer for old Bill has passed away,
And the world's a little poorer, for a soldier died today.

He will not be mourned by many, just his children and his wife,
For he lived an ordinary and quite uneventful life.
Held a job and raised a family, quietly going his own way,
And the world won't note his passing, though a soldier died today.

He was just a common soldier and his ranks are growing thin,
But his presence should remind us we may need his like again.
If we cannot do him honor while he's here to hear the praise,
Then at least let's give him homage at the ending of his days.
Perhaps just a simple headline in a paper that would say,
Our Country is in mourning, for a soldier died today.

FEAST OF FAITH
Liturgy and the Holy Trinity

The Trinity is the central mystery of our faith. We believe that God is one, yet three: total unity and rich diversity. God is not a monolith, but a dynamic community of persons, a perfect, loving harmony of three. And the liturgy is the work of the Trinity. We begin all our liturgical celebrations with the sign of the cross, a reminder of our Trinitarian baptism, and the simplest of all professions of our faith. We believe that God is Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, and we gather in the name of this triune God. Throughout the Mass, we address our prayers to God the Father, through Christ our Lord, in the Spirit's power. And the Father hears our prayer, transforming bread and wine into the Body and Blood of his Son by the Holy Spirit. The Church is "the sacrament of trinitarian communion" (Sacramentum Caritatis, 16). It is the Trinity who holds us together as well. In the words of Saint Cyprian, we are "a people made one by the unity of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit" (quoted in Sacramentum Caritatis, 16).

GET TO KNOW FR. EUGENE LEE

Fr. Eugene was born in Philadelphia on June 1, 1974. His parents immigrated from Korea. He grew up in Long Beach, CA from about 4 years old. He attended Bethany Baptist School in Long Beach from kindergarten to eighth grade. He has fond memories of this school, especially the creative and engaging ways in which they taught about the Bible and preached. His freshman and sophomore years were at St. John Bosco High School in Bellflower and then he transferred to Woodrow Wilson High School which was much closer to his home (and was co-ed!). Fr. Eugene majored in English at California State University in Long Beach. As he was graduating college, he began to more intensely discern his calling to the priesthood. He went to Korea from December of 1997 to July of 1998 to study Korean, to find his roots, and to explore life. After returning from Korea, Fr. Eugene entered St. John's Seminary in the fall of 1998. He studied there for 2 years before transferring to Mount Angel Seminary in Oregon. His one-year internship was at St. Bonaventure Church in Huntington Beach, and his deaconate assignment was St. Pius X Church in Portland. He was ordained as a priest on June 12, 2004.

His first assignment was Our Lady Queen of Angels in Newport Beach where he served for five years. Simultaneously, he also led the Korean community which used to be based at St. Elizabeth Ann Seton in Irvine (but is now Our Lady of Peace Korean Catholic Center located at the former property of St. Thomas More). Next, he was assigned as the associate director (like a parochial vicar) at St. Thomas Korean Catholic Center in Anaheim for 3 years.

Fr. Eugene's home parish is Korean Martyrs Catholic Center in Westminster where he received his faith formation as a child and became very involved during his young adult years. He attributes this church as where he received his salvation, where he met Christ and where he found his vocation. He received his First Communion, his Confirmation and did his first Mass at this parish. By God's blessings, the Bishop assigned Fr. Eugene years later to be director (pastor) at his home parish, where he has been for the past nine and half years.

His father, Nicholas, was a physician (an OBGYN) for 42 years practicing at Long Beach Memorial Hospital and St. Mary's Medical Center in Long Beach. His mother, Sue, was the office manager at her husband's practice for many years. He has a younger sister, Bonnie, now married with 3 daughters, and a younger brother, married with 3 sons and a daughter.

Fr. Eugene's baptism name and patron saint is St. Justin the Martyr and apologist. His all-time favorite movie is Braveheart (1995). He loves to cycle, tinkers with tennis, and thinks eating is a chore. He has a small dog named Mocha, a shih-tzu who he has had for almost 11 years and absolutely adores! He prefers to vacation in nature than in cities. His favorite saints are, St. Peter Julian Eymard, St. John Paul II, St. Peter the Apostle, and St. Joseph and most especially our Blessed Mother Mary with whom he maintains an abiding devotion. He has been profoundly impacted by the apparitions at Fatima (1916). He loves the pilgrimage to the Holy Land and has gone on mission trips to serve in the ghettos of Jamaica about 10 times. He has been the spiritual director for the English-speaking side of the Southern California Korean Cursillo Movement for the past 8 years. He has served in various committees and positions for the Diocese of Orange over the years. He likes fast food too much and needs to get rid of more sugar from his diet! His all-time favorite Bible verse is Hebrews 12:28.
