The Library Corner

The St. Thomas More Parish Library staff would like to wish all our parishioners a Happy Tenth Sunday in Ordinary Time. The Parish Library will be open today from 9:00am to 1:00pm.

As Catholics, do we know what redemptive suffering is? We believe that Christ invites us to unite our suffering with His Passion and that, when we do this, our suffering takes on redemptive power. It can be offered for ourselves or others, for the salvation of souls and to make reparation for sin. Suffering should never be let go to waste because we can do great good by offering it up for someone else. The STM Parish Library has a great book on suffering titled, 'The Lands of Father Damien.' The author of this great book is James H. Brocker. Saint Damien of Molokai was canonized by Pope Benedict XVI on October 11, 2009. Saint Damien is recognized for his ministry to people with leprosy (Hansen's disease), from 1873 to his death in 1889. They lived in quarantine in a settlement on the Kalaupapa Peninsula of Molokai, Hawaii. These people with leprosy were forced from their families and stripped of their dignity. Men, women and children came from all races, religions and walks of life to this colony. The chronicle of suffering and loneliness belongs to each and every one of those exiled to the Kalaupapa Peninsula over the decades and it is for them that this story of suffering is told. (BIO)

Questions of the Week

First Reading:

We hear how Adam and Eve disobeyed God and listened to the serpent, who tricked them into eating the forbidden fruit. How can you more intentionally listen to God's voice this week?

Second Reading:

Paul urges the Corinthians to be confident that despite our current afflictions and discouragements, God has given us an abundance of grace and has prepared for us eternal glory. Who might need to hear this message of hope from you?

Gospel:

As he began his public ministry in Galilee, Jesus redefined "family" as whoever does the will of God. What would you say is "the will of God?"

PRAYER FOR GRADUATES

Heavenly Father,
Surround those who are graduating with your grace.
Bless them with hope so that they move into the future with eager and open hearts.
Help them to put the knowledge, skills, and insights gained through their education to use for the good of all humankind.
Inspire them to believe in the goodness of life even when faced with challenges and difficulties.
As they commence with their lives, may they grow ever more grateful and wise.
All of this we ask in the name of Jesus, your beloved Son. Amen.

Gospel Meditation Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

Jesus asks us a stunning question this week: “How can Satan cast out Satan?” To enter into this question opens up the often-hidden dynamics of what Jesus has done and is constantly doing. If we’re honest, our response to some degree is: “How else can we cast him out? Satan is precisely how we cast out Satan!” But Jesus wants us to see this finally does not work. Here’s what I mean.

Satanas names the demonic mechanism by which we render wholeness through accusation. When we face a threat, we seek something to protect us (e.g., more money, social status, security, power, etc.). Rivals inevitably arise for these things and so do tensions. Accusation presents itself. “I’ll never be successful unless I get ahead of that guy.” “She’s already trying to get ahead of me.” “That group of immigrants is trying to take our jobs.” And so on. The accusation grows into a fear-inducing threat — things will break apart — no, they already are! Hurry! We inflict violence on the victim and — as if by magic — peace ensues. For a time. Soon fresh accusations are required to hold new chaos at bay, until there is no community left at all. This is essentially humankind’s sad history in a nutshell.

Jesus’ cross and resurrection unmasks this broken system of “casting out Satan by Satan” and ushers in a new one he calls “the Kingdom of God.” He reveals that the dynamic of accusation is nothing compared to his power of divine mercy and love. The cross (and not Satan) is the real power to tear down strongholds of sin and cast out Satan. This is why he describes himself as the “stronger man who ties up the strong man to plunder his house.” This week let’s notice the ways we “cast out Satan by Satan,” and then refuse to do it anymore. Because in the long run, that divided house cannot stand.

— Father John Muir
