Seminarian
Joseph Nguyen

Hello St. Thomas More,

My name is Joe Nguyen. I am a Seminarian for the Diocese of Orange and I will be assigned to your parish this summer as part of my formation and I am very excited to serve you all! A little bit about me: I am 21 years old from Garden Grove. I have an older brother, a younger sister, and a whole lotta cousins. My home parish is St. Columban's (in Garden Grove), and was very active in my parish's confirmation program and the Vietnamese Eucharistic Youth Movement (VEYM). Before I entered seminary I was working part time in the offices of Christ Cathedral and studying at Orange Coast College, getting my Associates in English. I am currently enrolled in Mount Angel Seminary in Oregon, and will be headed back there in fall. But until then, I will be at your parish serving you all.

I am looking forward to getting to know you, along with praying and worshipping with you all.

Pax Christi,

Joseph (Joe) Nguyen

KEITH RATTAY & DEACON BERNIE OCAMPO

Keith Rattay is retiring as the Music Director here at St. Thomas More. He and his wife, Meredith have been in the 9:30am Mass “Act of God” choir which started at St. John Neumann and continued at the STM rectory for the first Thanksgiving Mass of STM. Keith has led this choir from the beginning of the parish. In addition, Keith has been influential in the building up of STM, helping vision out a beautiful campus using his skills in architectural landscaping, and spearheading the start of our new church building project. He also served for many years as the head of our art and environment committee helping make sure that we are able to gather in a beautiful space. Keith’s last Sunday with us as Music Director will be June 29 at the 9:30am Mass. He will be available for special Masses, funerals and weddings, as needed.

Bishop Vann has assigned Deacon Bernie Ocampo to Our Lady Queen of Angels Catholic Church in Newport Beach effective July 1, 2025. During his time as deacon here at St. Thomas More, he and his wife, Pamela have contributed so much to the parish including OCIA, That Man Is You, Filipino Ministry, Cursillo, Baptism, marriage preparation, and much more. His last Sunday with us will be June 22nd.

Thomas More was born on Feb 7, in London. He was the sole surviving son of Sir John More, a successful lawyer and later a judge.

1492

Thomas studied for two years at Oxford University under the patronage of John Morton, Archbishop of Canterbury.

1494

Thomas returned to London, where he studied law.

1499

As a young law student, he lived with the Carthusian monks and followed their regimen, and even thought of becoming a Franciscan friar himself before finally deciding that his vocation was to marriage.

1501

Thomas was called to the bar — thereby becoming a barrister (lawyer).

1504

He was elected a member of Parliament.

Thomas was a brilliant and popular young man, renowned for his honesty and integrity, who was quickly noticed within political circles, which led to him being offered a series of official posts in government.

1505-11

He married Jane Colt in 1505, four children were born of this marriage.

In 1511, Jane died, he later married Alice Middleton, a widow.

1516

Thomas publishes his most famous work, Utopia.

The book is about a mythical country with a perfect society.

1518-21

He enters the service of King Henry VIII, taking a job as Master of Requests in 1518, was knighted and becomes ambassador in 1521.

Portrait of St. Thomas More by Hans Holbein

Date of birth: February 7, 1478

Birthplace: Milk Street, London, England

Died: July 6, 1535 Age: 57

Feast day June 22

Patronage: Attorneys, Civil servants, Court clerks, Lawyers, Politicians, Public servants

He would obey every lawful command of the king, but he was God's servant first. A human law contrary to God's law could not bind.

St. Thomas More

If the Church he served and died for waited 400 years to declare that he was in heaven, it must have been because his witness and example were going to be what we would need now, today: for the Church gives us the saints we need at the time we need them. Thomas More, 'walking by faith and not by sight', maintained his cheerfulness, and, more importantly, his charity, even though the Church was, objectively, being pulled down in ruins in front of his eyes. Here was a layman who, in a time of unparalleled crisis, did serve the Church; in his life there are a whole multitude of lessons for us if only we will strive to learn them.

On Tower Hill, St. Thomas More was publicly executed. His last words to the public before dying were,

"I die the king's good servant, and God's first."

The Act of Succession 1534 provided that the King's subjects take an oath, which required all English subjects to agree to three clauses:

- That any heir or offspring of King Henry VIII and Anne Boleyn was a legitimate heir to the throne.
- That the marriage between King Henry VIII and Catherine of Aragon was null and void.
- That the Bishop of Rome, the Pope, had no more authority or power in England than any other bishop.

Anyone who refused to sign the oath was guilty of high treason punishable by death.

Throughout the time of his imprisonment the source of St. Thomas More's greatest sufferings was arguably his own family. No one in the family could understand his 'scruple of conscience'. His eldest and favorite child, his 'dearly beloved Meg', begged him to take the oath. Once when Meg visited him in prison and tried to persuade him to come home for his own good and that of the family, he gently refused calling her "mistress Eve... come to offer father Adam the apple yet again."

Anne Boleyn was beheaded 11 months after St. Thomas More, on charges of adultery. King Henry VIII went on to marry four more wives, another of which was also beheaded. Henry died in 1547.

Henry deposed Cardinal Wolsey as Lord Chancellor for his failure to procure from Rome an annulment for his marriage to Catherine of Aragon.

Henry appointed Thomas as Lord Chancellor, the highest office in England under the King and the first layman ever to hold this position.

Thomas accepts the post because it will allow him to defend his Church.

1532

Henry went his own way and divorced Catherine. At this, Thomas resigned as Chancellor.

1534

On April 13, Thomas refuses to take the oath of the Act of Succession.

On April 17, Thomas was arrested and imprisoned in the Tower of London.

His prison cell was the ground floor of the Bell Tower in the Tower of London.

1535

On Feb 1, the Act of Supremacy came into operation, giving the title of 'only supreme head of the Church of England' to the king and made it treason to deny it.

Thomas was asked while he was in the Tower his opinion of the Act, but he refused to give his opinion.

On July 1, at the trial, Thomas broke his long silence and as a superb lawyer defended himself, intimidated by Henry. The jury convicted Thomas of treason.

On July 6, Thomas was taken to be beheaded at Tower Hill.

1935

400 years later, Thomas was canonized by Pope Pius XI.

Location of the execution site of St. Thomas More, as it appears now in London.

Devotions, Explained!

Marian consecration is the act of consecrating oneself to Jesus through the intercession of his Blessed Mother and is rooted in the words of Jesus himself when he beseeched the Apostle John to look upon Mary as his mother (John 19:27).

Prayer for the True Presence

Jesus,
What a gift we have in your True Presence: the assurance of your friendship, your company, your grace, your love. Increase our thirst for you as you, also, desire to draw closer to us.
Amen.
