Today's theme on the readings: DISCIPLESHIP'S COSTS

In today's first reading, God tells the prophet Elijah to prepare Elisha to succeed him. Succeeding Elijah will be no easy task; he has spent his life facing threats from the kings he has confronted about their infidelity to the God of Israel. The psalm illustrates the emotional and spiritual distress that the prophets' steadfast faithfulness to God brought them. Paul's description of the Christian's freedom from the law as opposed to "the desire of the flesh" puts this struggle at the very heart of Christian identity. The reading from Luke's Gospel recounts Jesus' decision to journey toward Jerusalem, where he knows he will meet his earthly fate. Following Jesus—like succeeding Elijah as prophet—will now become more difficult. Unlike his calls to the first disciples, Jesus encounters those who are not ready or are not strong enough to journey with him. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

Your input is important to our church!

During the first quarter of 2021, we conducted a parish-wide survey with the Catholic Leadership Institute with the hope of capturing your feedback and using it to develop our Pastoral Plan. We have experienced many changes over the last six months, and so, with a new Pastor and leadership, it makes sense to start fresh with a new survey. Your participation is appreciated. The survey, known as the Disciple Maker Index (DMI) Survey, allows parishioners to reflect on their own spiritual growth, degree of engagement, and level of satisfaction. The survey should take about 10 – 15 minutes to complete. It is available in many languages. It is also accessible using the online link that will be available through June 27, 2022. Please take a few minutes to complete the survey today on our website at stmirvine.org/survey. Paper copies will be available after masses or at the front desk of the parish office. Everyone age 18 and older is asked to complete this confidential survey. Your feedback will be invaluable to Fr. Eugene and our various ministries, as we plan for the future and respond to where the Lord is calling our Parish to be. Once the results are received, we will share what we have learned with the entire parish. Steps will also be taken to develop our Pastoral Plan that will include a Vision Statement as well as a set of priorities and related goals. Your input will make a difference! Thank you for helping with this important activity!

The Library Corner

13th Sunday in Ordinary Time

The St Thomas More Parish Library staff would like to wish all our parishioners a Happy 13th Sunday in Ordinary Time. The Parish Library will be open today from 9:00am to 1:00pm.

On Wednesday, the Catholic Church will honor the Solemnity of Saints Peter & Paul. St. Paul is one of the most important figures in our Catholic Church history. As Catholics, we know Saul of Tarsus was vigorously persecuting the followers of Christ and even martyred Stephen. Then on the road to Damascus, Jesus changed his life forever and his name. Through the Lord's encounter, Paul understood the universal nature of the Christian message and became the Apostle to the Gentiles.

The Parish Library has an excellent book on this topic titled, 'Saint Paul', authored by Pope Benedict XVI. Pope Benedict follows the course of Paul's life, including his missionary journey and his relationship with the other apostles of Jesus. According to St Paul, to be an apostle of Christ, you have to encounter our Lord, you have to be sent by our Lord and you have to devote your entire life to proclaiming the Gospel of our Lord.

Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Paul wanted the Galatian people to live according to God's Spirit and not their own desires. Read the word in each shape. Find the word it rhymes with below. Use the color beside it to fill in the area. When you're finished, you'll have a reminder of this teaching.

wet (green) bed (red)

JESUS ANSWERED HIM,

“Foxes have dens and birds of the sky have nests,
but the Son of Man has nowhere to rest his head.”

Luke 9:58

CALLED BY GOD

We return to Ordinary Time this Sunday, and with this new season we focus on what it means to be a person who is called by God for some definite purpose. Elisha recognized God’s call in Elijah’s greeting and prepared immediately to follow. The people who came to Jesus seemed ready to follow, yet each had reasons to linger behind. As people who are given the freedom to follow or to stay behind, we must ask ourselves what we are ready to do for the sake of Christ and the call of the gospel. What are you called to do at this time in your life? Are you prepared to leave behind the things that get in the way of living as a Christian?

FOLLOW

What does it mean to follow Jesus? The Gospels show us that Jesus called each person individually, recognizing the things that stood in the way for each. He looked into the person’s heart and saw the true desires of the person standing before him. Each of us experiences Christ’s call uniquely as the persons we are. For some, following requires us to take stock of our lives and let go of the obstacles that keep us from the way of true discipleship. For others, the call may lead us to deepen the way that faith directs our lives, with more intentional time in prayer, regular participation in Mass, renewed attention to family, involvement in our parish, or new acts of service.

BE READY

It is easy to say we want to follow Jesus, yet most of us feel competing desires that stand in the way of discipleship. We may be distracted by the constant swirl of activity so prevalent in our surrounding culture; we might be lured by worldly wealth and the status that often accompanies it; we may simply be comfortable with the way things are and find it difficult to risk changing anything. In today’s Gospel, Jesus makes it clear that we must stop putting off making the changes that will bring us closer to him and to God’s way of life. We must trust in the Lord, knowing that what he most deeply desires is that we be close to him. If you encountered Jesus today and said you were ready to follow him, what would he see in your heart, what obstacles or hesitations would he perceive? Go to Jesus in prayer this day. Listen to him say, “Follow me.” Prayerfully place your life in the Lord’s hands and be ready to follow.

Prayer

Gracious and loving God,
let your Spirit be with us today.
Hear our prayers, and increase in us
the will to follow your Son Jesus.

Help us to draw on the resources of our faith as we use the opportunities of our democracy to shape a society more respectful of the life, dignity, and rights of the human person,
especially the poor and vulnerable.

We ask this through Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God forever and ever.

Amen.
