Welcoming all, we, the Spirit-filled parish of St. Thomas More, value our Roman Catholic faith by celebrating the sacraments, breaking open the Scriptures, and joyfully offering ourselves in service to others. RESPECT LIFE — BUILDING OUR FUTURE

A good house builder plans carefully, hires good workers, and selects quality materials to build a strong and beautiful house. As disciples of Jesus, we have been commissioned and entrusted with the responsibility to build the Kingdom of God as He desires. And, we know from Scripture and the teachings of the Church that God's world respects the dignity of human life.

If we build societies that marginalize people and have no regard for human life, we will get a world of abortion, euthanasia, and disrespect for the unborn and the elderly. Like the tenants in the Gospel story (Matthew 21:33-43), we have been entrusted with caring for and tending the vineyard of God's life and love in the world. Like those tenants, our efforts to do this will not always be popular or accepted, and still, we are to continue to tend God's vineyard. To build the world God desires, which respects the dignity of life, we must use the finest materials of strong faith, steadfast hope, fervent prayer, and active participation in our parish and Church.

The future we build requires using the materials of our good and generous selves to honor the Lord, each other, and the dignity of life. As builders of God's kingdom, we must cherish Life . . . promote Life . . . Respect Life!

Questions of the Week

First Reading:

The Lord encourages Ezekiel to be courageous in his role as a prophet, regardless of the response of the Israelites. Can you think of a time when you had to be courageous in facing uncertainty?

Second Reading:

Paul learned a "thorn in his flesh" that was given to him to teach him that God's grace alone should be sufficient for his ministry. What are some obstacles in your life you have had to overcome?

Gospel:

We hear how the villagers of Nazareth were "offended" by Jesus and lacked faith in him. How do you support family or friends who have been hurt by others?

TURN TO GOD

Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

Recently I watched a bunch of YouTube videos on how to optimize willpower in the face of weakness. The message was: do not accept your weakness. Crush it. Dominate it. In one video, however, at the end of a rant by a willpower coach, the muscular stoic admitted, "You'll never actually get what you want, no matter how hard you try." Amazingly, he admitted that willpower alone is not sufficient for us weak-willed humans.

What does God want us to do with our weaknesses, if crushing them with willpower won't work? For example, what should I do with my tendency to arrogance and self-isolation? Or my procrastination? Or my intellectual and physical limitations? Or my selfishness?

The counter-intuitive answer is clear in this week's words from St Paul, "I will rather boast most gladly of my weaknesses in order that the power of Christ may dwell in me (2 Cor. 12:9)." Boast of our weaknesses? Paul isn't promoting weak-mindedness or laziness. Rather, he perceives that Jesus loves us not despite our weaknesses but because of them. Boasting of our weakness means claiming human will is not all we have. It means turning to God whenever we feel weak, which—let's face it—is almost all the time. When we do, we learn to love our weaknesses, because it's there that we meet the strength of Christ. This week, I challenge us to find ways to boast not in willpower but in weakness.

Inspiration of the Week

When Jesus taught in the synagogue of his native place, he didn't fit the image of the Messiah the people expected. They dismissed him. Let's learn from their example and remember that God often comes to us in forms that are surprising — even challenging.
