(Ps 145)
Or Alleluia.

Live The Liturgy Inspiration of the Week

The Christian life does not require wisdom, charisma, or strength — no, quite the opposite.
To be Christian, we must embrace our faults, our littleness, our shortcomings — gather them up, and lay them all at the feet of Jesus. There, they will be transformed.

Saint of the week

Venerable John Augustus (Gus) Tolton was born into slavery and escaped with his mother early in his life. He went to seminary in Rome and returned to the U.S. to form a black national church in Chicago. He is considered to be the first priest in the USA who was publicly known to be black.

Prayer

Venerable Father Tolton, when confronted with the hatred of a brother and the taunts of a few, you imitated the Lamb of God and did not open your mouth against them.

Help us, Father Gus, to follow your example of long-suffering compassion and silent perseverance, to love our enemies and to pray for our persecutors.

Teach us to be noble servants of Christ until he calls us into the presence of his majesty, there to look upon the Master's loving face.

Who lives and reigns with the Father and the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever. Amen.

The Library Corner

The Parish Library will be open today from 9:00 am to 1:00 pm.

If you are looking for a way to do a thorough examination of your conscience when it comes to loving yourself and your neighbor, then the STM Parish Library has the book for you. This book is entitled, 'The Hidden Power of Kindness', authored by Father Lawrence G. Lovasik. Father Lovasik says to be prepared and be honest with yourself. You may be surprised by how unkind you really are, but that is half the battle. Recognizing our faults, we can, with God's grace and help, do something about the way we think and live with others. Father shows us how kind thoughts, kind words and good deeds are the fruits of our speech and actions that bless us and others. We are encouraged to really examine ourself and our motivations and are challenged through the spiritual life to overcome those unkind thoughts that creep undetected into the behavior of even the most careful souls. As Catholics, we should practice charity and kindness towards others, as Christ commands us to do; to love your neighbor as yourself.

Questions of the Week

First Reading

The prophet Zechariah saw the future king of Israel restoring both the land and the people, bringing peace and justice to all the nations. How might you help build toward this promised future?

Second Reading

Paul speaks of the power of the Spirit living in those who believe in Jesus. When have you felt or experienced the presence of the Holy Spirit in your life?

Gospel Reading

Jesus invites all who are burdened and laboring to find "rest" in him. What burdens do you or your family need lifted from your life?

IT IS SUCH A FOLLY TO PASS ONE'S
TIME FRETTING,
INSTEAD OF
RESTING QUIETLY
ON THE HEART OF JESUS.

Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

Do you ever feel restless? I certainly do. Daily tasks and challenges, but also the more basic demand of simply existing — sooner or later, this can all feel crushing and tire us out.

Which is why Jesus' words are such stunningly good news: "Come to me all you who labor and are burdened and I will give you rest" (Matthew 11:28). How vastly weird that this man speaks as though he is capable of giving us the deep repose we desire. Is his claim the height of absurd grandiosity? No, because next he immediately proclaims that he is "meek and humble of heart." We here touch a mystery: Jesus is capable of giving us rest because he is the one who forever reposes in the heart of God the Father. He is "yoked" to the Father in his divinity. But he is humbly "yoked" to us, sharing in our humanity.

The good news, my fellow tired-out friends: we don't have to despair in our burdens and exhaustion, no matter how heavy they feel. This week, join me in opening our hearts to hear him say to us, "Come! I will give you rest." We come to him in the Church, Eucharist, the Scriptures, prayer, in the poor. There he will give us rest.
