Sunday's Readings

First Reading:

His clothing was bright as snow,
and the hair on his head as white as wool;
his throne was flames of fire,
with wheels of burning fire. (Dn 7:9)

Psalm:

The Lord is king, the Most High over all the earth.
(Ps 97)

Second Reading:

When that unique declaration came to him from the majestic glory,
"This is my Son, my beloved, with whom I am well pleased."
We ourselves heard this voice come from heaven
while we were with him on the holy mountain.
(2 Pt 1:17-18)

Gospel:

And he was transfigured before them;
his face shone like the sun and his clothes became white as light. (Mt 17:2)

Live The Liturgy Inspiration of the Week

"Do not tell the vision to anyone until the Son of Man has been raised from the dead," Jesus told his disciples. Why keep such an amazing thing as the Transfiguration a secret? Because the world wasn't ready for the end of the story yet. Sometimes, the glory only makes sense after the trials.

Today the Catholic Church will celebrate the Feast of the Transfiguration of the Lord, but do we really know the significance of this great event? Jesus takes Peter, James and John up Mount Tabor in Israel to meet Moses and Elijah. Jesus says, "Think not that I have come to abolish the Law and the Prophets: I have come not to abolish them but to fulfill them". Jesus refers to the Law that represents Moses and that of the Prophets as that represents Elijah. At this Transfiguration, all three persons of the Most Blessed Trinity were present; with the Father in the voice, the Son as Jesus and the Holy Spirit as the shining cloud. According to St. Thomas Aquinas, the Transfiguration occurred because the divine glory, which was Christ, allowed for a moment to shine through Jesus' human body. Jesus did this so that they, His disciples, could taste the contemplation of eternal joy, in view of the persecutions they would suffer. In addition, the Transfiguration is one of the Luminous Mysteries of the Rosary.
