@stmirvine

Welcoming all, we, the Spirit-filled parish of St. Thomas More, value our Roman Catholic faith by celebrating the sacraments, breaking open the Scriptures, and joyfully offering ourselves in service to others. Under the inspiration of our patron saint, we seek to build a caring community that embraces the values he modeled of friendship, integrity and courageous love of God.

STM joyfully welcomes Pamela Ocampo as the Director of Children's Faith Formation!

Many know Pam has been involved in various capacities through over 20 years as a faithful and service-oriented parishioner of STM. She has been married 33 years with Deacon Bernie Ocampo, and has been blessed with four children (one in heaven) and a toddler grandson.

Pam has been serving in the parish as Head Sacristan and in an active leadership role within the Liturgy Committee. She was coordinator of OCIA with Fr. Eugene for three years, facilitated Baptism Prep and Marriage Prep, plus served as a Catechist for Confirmation and Children Faith Formation. Pam has been involved in Cursillo and CRHP/Welcome. She is also involved in formation and personnel boards within the Diaconate office.

Prior to joining the STM staff, she was employed in the Diocese of Orange's Office of Ecumenism and Inter-religion. Pam coordinated Diocese events with Bishops, Senior Priests and Committees that promoted Christian unity and understanding among faiths. Her main professional background was in human resources, talent recruiting and project management for major global firms.

Pam's education includes nearly 10 years of diaconate program (initial training plus ongoing formation) with her husband. She possesses a Bachelor's degree in Business Administration and attended Catholic K-12 schools.

Everyday Stewardship

I remember when all three of my children were learning to swim. In the beginning, it seemed like no matter how much assurance I gave them, they were certain they would drown. Even after watching me float in the water, they were pretty sure their bodies were created to sink. In time, they grew more comfortable in the water.

Eventually, they could even swim the length of the pool. But this did not happen overnight. They had to grow in their faith that swimming was possible, not just for others, but for them as well.

Too many of us who are Christians believe that holiness is for someone else. We believe that the stories of the saints are about super humans who had something in greater supply than us. When our faith is weak, we assume that we can never have the faith of these holy men and women.

On the contrary, faith and holiness are not things only possible for a few. But we must practice our faith to grow in our faith. We must strive for holiness if we are to become holy.

Like a child fears the water before learning to swim, we often fear the path that leads to greater faith or holiness. We are not convinced that God can work in our lives to create a saint. Yet except for Mary, the Immaculate Conception, every saint was a sinner. God called every saint to exit the boat and walk toward Jesus on the water. In time, with practice and trust in God, they found they did not sink either.

GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

Matthew 14:22-33

As a young, newly ordained priest, I admired a senior priest who was gifted, beloved, and had changed countless lives. But soon I learned that he had fallen in catastrophic and destructive ways. The painful juxtaposition of good and evil was complex to process. How could someone so seemingly good also be so broken and deceptive? It forced me to confront a sobering truth: leadership in the Church is no guarantee against weakness or sin. Peter teaches that truth in this week's Gospel. When he sees Jesus walking on the sea, Peter does what leaders do. He goes first. "Lord, if it is you, command me to come to you on the water." But when he sees how strong the wind is, he becomes frightened and, beginning to sink, cries out, "Lord, save me." Immediately, Jesus stretches out his hand and catches him.

St. Thomas Aquinas observes that Peter overcomes the greater danger of the waves but falters before the lesser threat of the wind. This is the paradox leaders often face. It is not always the great trials that undo us, but the smaller, quieter temptations, such as subtle fears and compromises, that lead us to sink.

The good news is that Jesus does not abandon Peter. He saves him before it is too late. Our frail humanity lives within a rhythm of grace, risk, failure, and mercy. Jesus helps Peter overcome both the obvious and hidden sources of fear, and he promises to do the same for us. So, let us pray for all, especially our spiritual leaders.

50 YEARS
THE DIOCESE OF ORANGE
JUBILEE ANNIVERSARY

Queenship of Mary Novena

Diocese of Orange | August 13-21, 2026

Daily novena prayers available in multiple languages on stmirvine.org

As we prepare for "There's More!" our diocesan gathering with the Lord and one another on August 22, the Feast of the Queenship of Mary, we entrust ourselves to Mary, our Mother and Queen. During these 9 days, we will reflect on our relationship with Mary from the Collection of the Masses of the Blessed Virgin Mary. Through her intercession, we ask for a New Pentecost and for renewal through the outpouring of the Holy Spirit, so that Christ may reign in us and the Gospel may be proclaimed throughout the world. We ask Mary to obtain for us the grace to listen to her words: "Do whatever He tells you" (Jn. 2:5), and to open our hearts to Christ, who desires to give us His life in abundance.

August is Dedicated to the
The Immaculate Heart of Mary
