LET'S Build THE HOUSE OF THE Lord

Servants through whom you believed, as the Lord assigned to each. I planted, Apollos watered, but God gave the growth. So neither he who plants nor he who waters is anything, but only God who gives the growth.

THANK YOU!

The recent School Supply fundraiser, sponsored by Young Ladies Grand Institute, was very successful due to the kind generosity of our parishioners! Many supplies were received, as well as monetary donations. As a result, we were not only able to provide significant support to St. Joseph School in Santa Ana, but were also able to assist St. Anne's Catholic School in Santa Ana. Your donations were very much appreciated by both schools and they were thrilled to receive them!

The members of YLGI are very grateful for your support. Thank you and God bless you.

Coming this week to Saint Thomas More Church
Joseph of Cupertino Classical Academy

Beginning this Monday, August 26th, STM will be blessed with a new community of faithful. After much work and preparation, Joseph of Cupertino Classical Academy (JCCA) will begin classes for young students here. What is JCCA? This is from their website www.jccacademy.org:

Joseph of Cupertino Classical Academy is a hybrid, homeschool curricular program, which includes a rigorous classical curriculum, character development, spiritual formation, and enrichment in the classical tradition. The hybrid style embraces and combines the strengths of traditional school and homeschooling.

Professional teachers instruct students in their areas of expertise and provide assignments for both school and home. Students attend the Academy each Monday, Tuesday, and Thursday. On Wednesday and Friday, parents continue instruction and monitor their students' progress at home. The family works together to facilitate a learning environment in the home, and teachers guide and monitor the progress through the Academy's classical curriculum in their own areas of expertise.

Joseph of Cupertino Classical Academy is the ideal setting for families desiring flexibility and parental involvement, with a focus on rigorous academics, strong Catholic faith formation and community. Our educational approach develops capable and independent students, and strengthens family bonds.

The students will be in uniform and will attend Mass at 8 am with the rest of the STM community during most of the days that they are here. Currently there are approximately 80 students enrolled and about 20 faculty. They will be occupying many of our classrooms here on Mondays, Tuesdays, and Thursdays between 8:30 am and 3:00 pm. This will have minimal impact on daily operations of the parish here, but certainly some adjustments have had to be made. JCCA is not officially under the parish and is a separate organization. Over the months, the JCCA team and the parish staff have developed a nice synergy, and we believe that both parties will greatly benefit from this partnership.

Ultimately, JCCA is about deepening our Catholic identity and growing in discipleship of and devotion to our Lord Jesus Christ while helping form upstanding, productive members of society. Let us welcome the JCCA community to STM and pray for their success.

SPEAKER:
Fr. Ben Tran

Saint of the week

St. Damien de Veuster of Moloka'i (1840-1889) cared for the physical, medical, and spiritual needs of those exiled to the leper colony on the Hawaiian island of Moloka'i. His life of service shed light on the effects of this devastating disease and allowed people to see those afflicted with it with more compassion and love.

Prayer of Declaration

Lord,
In the season when faith is hard, help me to be as bold as Peter who picked you above all others saying, "To whom shall I go? You have the words of eternal life." You're my God.
I'm yours.
There is nowhere else I would rather be.
Amen.

"The words I have spoken to you are Spirit and life. But there are some of you who do not believe." And he said, "For this reason I have told you that no one can come to me unless it is granted him by my Father." As a result of this, many of his disciples returned to their former way of life and no longer accompanied him.
