Mission Cooperative Appeal: This Weekend, Sept 9 & 10

Sister Carole Marie Blazina, SC and Sister Barbara Einloth, SC from the Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill are visiting St. Thomas More this weekend as part of the Mission Cooperative Appeal. The Sisters serve in missions in Ecuador, China, and South Korea assisting children with disabilities. The Sisters and staff teach and offer training in life skills to children who are physically and mentally challenged. The funds received in 2023 will provide much needed books for the library, school supplies, lunches at their school for children with disabilities and food to the families of those struggling in Ecuador. Assistance is also needed in the early education center for the disabled in China. They are in great need of supplies and funds to cover operational expenses. Your support is greatly appreciated!

The Library Corner

The St Thomas More Parish Library staff would like to wish all our parishioners a Happy 23rd Sunday in Ordinary Time. The Parish Library will be open today from 9:00am to 1:00pm.

How would you like to embark on a journey through time with the saints to see the seven sorrows of our Lady as if it was happening today? You can be a witness to the key events in the life of our Lord and our Lady, including the 'Seven Sorrows' of the Blessed Virgin Mary, as approved in 1815 by Pope Pius VII. You will experience each sorrow and joy through the eyes of the saints and angels. If you are interested in these events, then the STM Parish Library has a book, entitled 'Splendor of Sorrow', authored by Ed Doherty, a priest in the Melkite Greek Catholic Church. The author traverses these events for us; from the prophecy of Simeon and the Flight into Egypt, through the Way to Calvary, the Crucifixion and Jesus being laid in the Tomb. His insight into the Mother of God and how God's light shines even in the suffering of this world, shows us how to find the mystery of divine joy within. Blessed be the name of Mary, Virgin and Mother. (MRY)

NEW BIBLE STUDY!

Romans: The Gospel of Salvation

Paul's letter to the Romans has been at the center of reflection, conversion, and controversy from the very beginning. Our newest study will help make sense of the difficult passages regarding faith, works of the law and justification.

Join us for Romans: The Gospel of Salvation, our brand new Saturday Bible Study. This study will help give you an authentically Catholic, comprehensive, and simple way to understand this challenging epistle.

Participants will view a video during the week and meet via Zoom every Saturday morning at 9AM for a lively group conversation and fellowship.

I Want to See God

The Joy of Contemplative Life
A walk with St. Thérèse of Lisieux

• Saturday, September 23
• 9:30 AM to 12:00 PM in Quinn Hall

We will learn from St. Thérèse of the Child-Jesus, Doctor of the Mystical Life, the simplicity of the contemplative gaze and the spiritual childhood. She teaches us that to become a saint, i.e., to be happy, is within the reach of every person. "Making God Happy" is Thérèse's program for holiness. This is the goal that she, even today, sets before the multitude of "little souls" whom she hopes to carry along her "little way" to heaven.
