The Library Corner

The Parish Library will be open today from 9:00am to 1:00pm.

Jesus Christ knew humans were fallen sinners & His disciples were included.

Jesus chastised them often enough for their pride, selfishness & ignorance, pointing out their sin so that they might repent and enter the Kingdom of God. Jesus taught His disciples about the coexistence of evil and good in the parables in St. Matthew's Gospel: sowing the weeds with the wheat, the net full of good & bad fish, the wedding feast where one guest failed to wear a wedding garment, the good & wise steward versus the wicked one, the foolish & wise virgins awaiting the Groom, the industrious & lazy servant. Jesus assumes the coexistence of the good & the bad within the Church, but He never condones it. If you are interested in this topic, then the STM Parish Library has a book entitled, 'Wheat and Tares', authored by Father Mitch Pacwa. Fr. Mitch gives us examples of how to reorient our lives toward selfless service to others.

Creating a Culture of Life

RESPECT LIFE MONTH

radical solidarity

Support can absolutely make a difference. Let's do what we can to never let a woman feel so alone and desperate as to abort her child. Awareness of the numerous resources available to women and couples who find themselves too overwhelmed to carry through with pregnancies can quite possibly save a life. Donating and volunteering at these various organizations in our local area will be concrete ways to build a Culture of Life.
