Psalm — The Lord has done great things for us; we are filled with joy (Psalm 126).

Second Reading — It was not Christ who glorified himself, but rather the one who said to him: You are my son: this day I have begotten you (Hebrews 5:1-6).

Gospel — Immediately the blind man received his sight and followed Jesus on the way (Mark 10:46-52).

Dear Brothers and Sisters of St. Thomas More Parish,

Today's theme on the readings: RECOGNIZING JESUS

The star of today's Gospel is a panhandler. Bartimaeus is blind, yes, but he is probably also homeless and filthy, a real nuisance to respectable citizens. Even so, it is Bartimaeus who recognizes Jesus as the Messiah, places all his faith in him, throws aside everything he has (his cloak), begs him for mercy, receives new vision, and follows Jesus on the way to suffering and death in Jerusalem. How desperate will we have to get before we can do the same? c

The Library Corner

30th Sunday in Ordinary Time

The St Thomas More Parish Library staff would like to wish all our parishioners a Happy 30th Sunday in Ordinary Time. The Parish Library will be open today.

Today I would like to recommend a book that defends the Catholic faith from the attacks by fundamentalist who try to persuade us to leave the Church. These attacks come from religious discussion forums, the internet and the major evangelical organizations. This book is titled, 'Catholicism and Fundamentalism', authored by Karl Keating. Karl examines and identifies these anti-Catholic groups and presents their arguments. His rebuttals are clear, detailed and considerate with special emphasis on our spiritual Catholic doctrines and beliefs.

FEAST OF FAITH
The Sound of Communion

The priest receives Holy Communion, and then there is movement, a bustle of activity, as we prepare to join the Communion procession. This holy meal does not happen in silence! Instead, we sing together even as we rise and move forward in procession to the altar. We must change and move to receive the Eucharist, and fittingly so, since the Eucharist is transformative—it demands action of us, internal as well as external. We do not receive the sacrament in silence, but with a dialogue that is also a profession of faith: "The Body of Christ." "Amen." "The Blood of Christ." "Amen." We acknowledge the real presence of Christ in the Eucharist with our "Amen" of faith, but more, our "Amen" is also a prayer that we may become what we receive, the Body of Christ, living and active in the world. We receive him not that he may become a part of us, but that we may become a part of him—part, too, of all the others who receive him, the whole communion of believers.—Corinna Laughlin, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

When Women Pray 11th Annual Prayer Breakfast

faith
fear

Last Saturday, we had over 750 attend our 11th Annual Prayer Breakfast. Sara Vusco gave an inspirational message of Faith over Fear. She shared how we can overcome even our deepest sorrows if we hold on to our faith. Thank you to the team of volunteers who worked so hard to make it a special day! Fr. Lee served coffee too! To view more photos, visit: whenwomenpraystm.org. Stay tuned for more WWP activities in the near future.
