St. Thomas More will host a rare and special Missionary Image of the Tilma of Our Lady of Guadalupe! It is one of only four Missionary Images in the world. Many miracles and healings have been attributed to the relic. The spiritual miracles are innumerable: the return of Catholics to their faith, the deepening of Catholic faith life, and a greater love and respect for Life.

Why do we do that? Catholic Life Explained

Question:

November is called the month of All Souls. More recently, it has been called the Commemoration of All the Faithful Departed. Can you tell us more about this feast and the remembrances of this month?

Answer:

November 2, the Commemoration of All the Faithful Departed, dovetails with November 1st, the feast of All Saints. The saints, our models of Christian living, are one with God in heaven. All the faithful departed are those who have died with hope and trust in a loving God who calls us to greater growth and development, even beyond death. This growth and development occurs in a state of being that we have traditionally called purgatory.

While the Western Church has emphasized the cleansing and purifying nature of purgatory, the Eastern Orthodox Church has emphasized the growth and development aspect of it. Today, belief in purgatory allows one who has died in Christ to continue growing and developing before meeting God face to face. God continually invites communion with these loved ones, but some feel the need to continue growing and developing before entering into full communion with God.

These November feasts vividly remind us of the rich reality known as the communion of saints. This belief stresses the strong affirmation that the church is always one in Christ. Death does not sever any of the bonds that unite us in Christ. That is why it is a fitting practice to pray for the dead and to ask them to pray for us. Just as we do that for each other when we are alive, so, too, do we continue that bond and concern for each other even beyond death.

The STM Respect Life ministry was especially engaged in the community during October, designated as Respect Life month by the U.S. Catholic Bishops (USCCB).

40 days for Life - Joined 250 others for a peaceful, pro-life prayer vigil outside Planned Parenthood on Tustin Ave. Visited with Lila Rose, Founder and President of "Live Action" - a global human rights movement dedicated to ending abortion & building a culture of life.

Walking with Moms - Ministered to moms, their babies and staff at a monthly meeting by providing a lovely lunch for 18, generous "goody bags" of everyday essentials, while sharing prayerful discussion time.

Walk for Life - Christ Cathedral for Mass with Bishop Vann, speakers, and representatives from many parishes and pro-life organizations.

Prayer and peaceful sidewalk counseling outside Planned Parenthood
 Ongoing weekly scheduled hours during the entire year, with additional shifts during the annual 40 days for Life campaign, ending Nov. 3rd.
