Dear Brothers and Sisters of St. Thomas More Parish,

Today's theme on the readings: LOVE GOD

As we near the end of the liturgical year we listen to Gospel readings from the final stage of Jesus' ministry—his teaching in Jerusalem. This Sunday Jesus is in conversation with one of the scribes of the temple. In a rare occurrence Jesus and the scribe agree on the two greatest commandments—to love God with all your being and to love your neighbor as yourself.

In today's selection from Deuteronomy Moses gives this teaching to the Israelites as the core of their life of faith and prayer, and Psalm 18 echoes this prayer with the words, "I love you, O LORD, my strength" (Psalm 18:2). Jews and Christians agree that our greatest responsibility is to love the one and only God, and that we cannot claim to love God without loving our neighbor as ourselves. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

Sincerely In Christ,
Father Eugene

31st Sunday in Ordinary Time
The Vigil of all Saints Day

The St. Thomas More Parish Library staff would like to wish all our parishioners a Happy 31st Sunday in Ordinary Time. The Parish Library will be closed today.

Today is Halloween, or, 'All Hallow's Eve', that is, the Vigil of all Saints Day. All Saints Day is when the Catholic Church remembers all those who have gone before us and have entered their heavenly home.

So let us celebrate an act of true devotion to God, whose saints have given us hope that we too may one day enter into the Heavenly Kingdom prepared for God's Holy Ones.

<https://www.rcbo.org/group/vocations-consecrated-life/>

All new parishioners are invited to a meeting on Monday, November 8, at 7:30 p.m. in the Multi-Purpose room.

Our pastor, Fr. Eugene Lee, will be there to welcome you and introduce you to St. Thomas More parish. Other speakers will include representatives from several parish organizations. It is a great way to find out about our parish and the ministries that serve it. Children are also welcome to attend the meeting as well as any parishioners looking to get updated on parish activities and programs. Since our on-site meetings have been stopped for a period of two years due to the pandemic, and some of our new parishioners go back a long time, we hope they will still attend this meeting. It will still be a great opportunity to meet Fr. Eugene and a good way to find out about some of the plans he is thinking about for our future growth and development. We look forward to meeting you, and welcoming you into our parish family!

For more information, please call Vince and Barbara Salico at 714-389-7726.

Remembering all souls.

We will be placing pictures of our dearly departed onto our parish hall walls throughout the month of November.

If you are interested in including your loved one's photo, please visit the welcome table outside or office lobby for additional details and easy instructions on how to submit your pictures.

Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them.

Society Devoted to the Sacred Heart

FEAST OF FAITH
Prayer after Communion

The rites following the reception of Communion are very short. It is as if the Church is saying to us that the only way to respond to this great gift is to go forth and live it! But there are some significant rites yet before we are sent forth from the Mass. After Communion, we pray together in silence or sing a hymn; both are ways to thank God for the gift of the Son. Then the priest prays another collect, the Prayer after Communion. This prayer, usually very short, gathers our prayers into one. It reminds us of what we have already experienced: in receiving the Eucharist, we have received a foretaste of the heavenly banquet; we have eaten the bread of angels. This reality, this knowledge, should transform us, so that we may journey through this life with our hearts set on eternal life, and find in the Eucharist—which is food from heaven and daily bread—the strength and hope we need to work toward God's kingdom of justice here and now.

Jesus answered, "The foremost commandment is, 'Hear, O Israel! The Lord our God is one Lord; and you shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind, and with all your strength.' The second is this, 'You shall love your neighbor as yourself.'" Mk 12:29-31
