All new parishioners are invited to a gathering on Monday, November 8th at 7:30 p.m. in the Multi-Purpose room.

Our pastor, Fr. Eugene Lee, will be there to welcome you and introduce you to St. Thomas More parish. Other speakers will include representatives from several parish organizations. It is a great way to find out about our parish and the ministries that serve it. Children are also welcome to attend the meeting as well as any parishioners looking to get updated on parish activities and programs. Since our on-site meetings have been stopped for a period of two years due to the pandemic, and some of our new parishioners go back a long time, we hope they will still attend this meeting. It will still be a great opportunity to meet Fr. Eugene and a good way to find out about some of the plans he is thinking about for our future growth and development. We look forward to meeting you, and welcoming you into our parish family!

For more information, please call Vince and Barbara Salico at 714-389-7726.

Dear Brothers and Sisters of St. Thomas More Parish,

Today's theme on the readings: THE POOR

As Christians, we hear a lot about the witness and service that we are called to render to the poor among us. However, the poor also have a witness and a service to render to us. Like the actions of the widow in today's Gospel, the openness and generosity of many of those who are poor, even in the midst of their own poverty, bear witness to the fact that, ultimately, we can depend only on God. Giving one's all witnesses that God will give all to anyone who trusts in divine goodness.

The poor or disadvantaged also serve. They serve judgment on our individual and corporate ways of acting. If people are sleeping in our streets, that is a judgment on our priorities regarding others. At the same time, the poor can act as mediators of salvation. When they care for others they can redeem our indifference and insensibility, lead us to care as well, and save us from ourselves.

Sincerely In Christ,
Father Eugene

The Library Corner

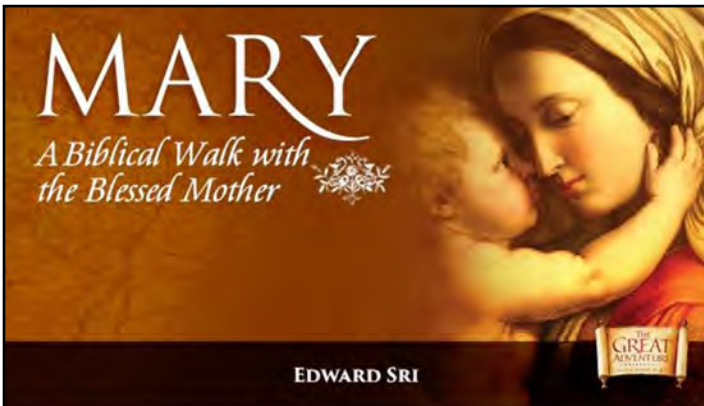

32nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

The St Thomas More Parish Library staff would like to wish all our parishioners a Happy 32nd Sunday in Ordinary Time. The Parish Library will be open today.

This week, on October 11, we will celebrate Veterans Day. This annual holiday is set aside to honor all our veterans who served in the U.S. Armed Forces.

The Parish Library has a book of a priest who was in the 82nd Airborne during WWII at the battle of the bulge. The book is titled, 'The Archbishop Wore Combat Boots', authored by Archbishop Philip Hannan. The good priest takes us on his life's journey from growing up in the DC area, through his seminary years, and as Chaplain in WWII, priest of JFK and Jackie, and Archbishop of New Orleans. He also integrated New Orleans Catholic schools and survived Hurricane Katrina. It is a fascinating book of a priest who dedicated his life of love for his fellow man.

FEAST OF FAITH Concluding Rites

The Prayer after Communion gives us a glimpse of the heavenly banquet, of which we have had a foretaste in the Eucharist. The concluding rites speak of what we are to do with this great gift of God. That includes the parish announcements, which are usually given following the Prayer after Communion. Believe it or not, the announcements, which are not an "official" part of the Mass, have been included in the Mass from as early as the fifth century! The deacon or the homilist—even the bishop—would announce coming liturgical celebrations and encourage the people to participate. Today's parish announcements include opportunities for prayer, service, learning, and community building. They should be succinct and should include only significant events and activities in the life of the parish. But even when they are long and tedious, the announcements (and the parish bulletin) flow out of the concluding rites of the Mass. They offer us ways to live the Eucharist, to become what we have received—the Body of Christ, living and active in our local community.

Guest Speaker: Barbara Heil

Barbara Heil is a former Pentecostal/prophetic minister who has traveled the world as a missionary, teacher, and evangelist.

After an amazing journey, Barbara came into full communion with the Catholic Church in April of 2013. She has spent the last few years traveling the U.S. and the world over, conducting worship seminars, retreats, and conferences, leading mission trips, offering prayer and counseling, and seeing thousands healed and set free inside and out, equipping lives for the Glory of God. She is a dynamic and inspirational speaker with a passion to awaken others to their destiny and purpose in Christ, and to lead people in deepening their walk with God.”

But in your hearts set apart Christ as Lord. Always be prepared to give an answer to everyone who asks you to give the reason for the hope that you have. But do this with gentleness and respect. – 1 Peter 3.15
