Dear Brothers and Sisters of St. Thomas More Parish,

Today's theme on the readings: GOD'S REIGN

By pointing to the end times, today's readings speak to the coming reign of God, when God will make all things new. In Christ, this time has already begun. We, by our energized watchfulness, can further God's reign. We can heal broken hearts, free captives, spread the Good News. Even so, the reign of God will not be complete without the second coming of Christ. Our weekly eucharistic gathering is a sign of the fullness of the end times. At Mass we join as an assembly to recall and to claim the story of Jesus as our own. Together we give thanks to God for the many gifts bestowed upon us. We receive nourishment in the simple but profound meal. And our weak and weary selves are invigorated and transformed by the power of Christ, so that we ourselves might become effective signs of God's reign present and to come.

Sincerely In Christ,
Father Eugene

The Library Corner

33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

The St Thomas More Parish Library staff would like to wish all our parishioners a Happy 33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time. The Parish Library will be open today.

The book that I would like to recommend today is a succinct overview of seven different New Testament perspectives on the Catholic Church which provide a look at the early apostolic church immediately after the death of the Apostles.

This book is titled, 'The Churches the Apostles Left Behind', authored by Father Raymond Brown. Father Raymond explores the early Christian response after the loss of the witnesses to Jesus, how the ecclesial communities came into existence and how these communities evolved into the Catholic Church.

FEAST OF FAITH

Blessing and Dismissal

At the beginning of Mass, the priest made the sign of the cross with us. At the conclusion of Mass, he makes the sign of the cross over us, a sign of blessing. We are then dismissed—not just let out, but sent forth with a mission “to love and serve the Lord.” Just as Jesus blessed his disciples as he ascended to heaven, so this leave-taking is joined to a blessing, a prayer for God's continuing protection. As we leave the church, we bear the invisible sign of the Master whom we follow. In the words of an ancient letter to Diognetus, “Christians are indistinguishable from other [people] either by nationality, language, or customs. They do not inhabit separate cities of their own, or speak a strange dialect, or follow an outlandish way of life. . . . And yet, there is something extraordinary about their lives” (Liturgy of the Hours, Vol. II, p. 840). We are ordinary people sent forth to live extraordinary lives, lives like Christ's own life—pouring ourselves out for others in prayer, service, and love.

Guest Speaker: Barbara Heil

Barbara Heil is a former Pentecostal/prophetic minister who has traveled the world as a missionary, teacher, and evangelist.

After an amazing journey, Barbara came into full communion with the Catholic Church in April of 2013. She has spent the last few years traveling the U.S. and the world over, conducting worship seminars, retreats, and conferences, leading mission trips, offering prayer and counseling, and seeing thousands healed and set free inside and out, equipping lives for the Glory of God. She is a dynamic and inspirational speaker with a passion to awaken others to their destiny and purpose in Christ, and to lead people in deepening their walk with God.”

But in your hearts set apart Christ as Lord. Always be prepared to give an answer to everyone who asks you to give the reason for the hope that you have. But do this with gentleness and respect. – 1 Peter 3.15
