Dear Brothers and Sisters of St. Thomas More Parish,

Today's theme on the readings: CHRIST, THE KING

The selection from the book of Daniel presented in today's first reading was part of an attempt to weave a vision of ultimate success for the Jews under persecution. Exactly whom the author had in mind when he refers to "one like a Son of Man" is hotly disputed by scholars today. The fact is, we simply do not know if the author meant anyone in particular or if this is a collective, figurative image of Israel's triumph. What we do know is that the early Christian community seized upon this passage and recognized it as a messianic prophecy, a foretelling of the ultimate triumph of Jesus as the Christ of God. The Lectionary's juxtaposition of this text with today's Gospel narrative of Jesus before Pilate is a wonderful example of how the liturgy "layers" passages with new meaning by inserting them in a particular context.

The celebration of Christ the King allows us to hear these passages with a new depth of meaning in light of our contemporary understanding of how, in Jesus and his resurrection and ascension, we have seen the fulfillment of Daniel's vision of ultimate deliverance. The veiled admission of Jesus before Pilate that he did indeed have a kingdom "not here" takes on new meaning against the cosmic vision of Daniel, who allows us to glimpse the "Ancient One" on his heavenly throne.

Sincerely In Christ,
Father Eugene

Safe Environment Training

We will present our Circle of Grace Safe Environment Training to all of our students in Kindergarten through 5th grades when we return from Thanksgiving Break.

The Library Corner

Feast of Christ the King

The St Thomas More Parish Library staff would like to wish all our parishioners a happy Feast of Christ the King. The Parish Library will be open today.

Today we celebrate the Feast of Christ the King, which was established by Pope Pius in 1925. The feast is intended to proclaim in a striking and effective manner Christ's royalty over individuals, families, society, governments and nations. The Mass today establishes Christ's royalty as described by; Christ as God, 'the creator', Christ as redeemer, 'purchased by His precious blood', Christ as head of the Church, 'primacy of the King forever', and Christ with dominion of the world, 'God bestowed all nations of the world as His possession'. Next Sunday starts Advent, our 'Coming of the King of the Universe'.

Have a Blessed Thanksgiving Day on Thursday!

FEAST OF FAITH Procession

“The Mass is ended, go in peace.” At the beginning of Mass, the ministers entered in solemn procession, an emblem of the diverse community that comes together around the altar each week to celebrate the Eucharist. As Mass ends, another procession forms, and the ministers go forth from the church. This concluding procession also acts as an emblem of the entire assembly, who, nourished by the Eucharist, will now go forth to our scattered homes and places of work to be a transforming leaven of the gospel in the world. At the beginning of Mass, the priest kissed the altar as a sign of greeting, a gesture of reverence for Christ. Now, the priest reverences the altar again, this time in a gesture of farewell. We gather our things and go forth as we entered—but not quite. Through our celebration of the Eucharist, we have renewed our commitment to service of Christ our King, and we go forth nourished, strengthened, renewed—changed. —Corinna Laughlin, Copyright © J. S.
